Chapter One: Immortality

People never really thought that anyone would be able to become immortal and no one knew that it would be a human. Bodeusious was born on the normal earth in may 6th 234057E. As soon as he was born they knew he was immortal cause of how he was never supposed to be born because of how his mother drank when she was pregnant and smoked.

When he was in his teenage years no one bullied him because he was immortal and they couldn't really hurt him. When he started to drive at 16 he got into a really bad car wreck and he was perfectly fine no scratches or anything.

He thought his life was perfect but when he graduated high school he realized he wanted to do more than just stay on earth and do nothing. He told his mom "I want to do more in my life not just to stay on earth and sit here." He always wanted to study planets and he discovered a planet named earth version 649E it's a version of earth but no humans can survive. It took him 25 years to even discover how to get to the planet because of how it is 400,000,000,000 light years away.

As soon as he could he would build a rocket that is able to travel millions and trillion light years away. It took him 10 years to build it. He named the rocket The Riley Launcher. When he got the rocket all ready he knew it would take him at least 10 years to make it there but he was ready for the challenge.

Chapter Two: His purpose

10 years later. . . .

The first thing he said was "Where the heck am I now." But then he saw a huge cave that he wanted to explore. He heard weird things like people chanting things so he explored it. Bodeusious knew that he could have a very high risk of getting kidnapped and not coming back. Earth version 649E was a very cold place but it's a desert with Prehistoric birds.

When he went in the cave it was very cold but warm at the same time. Suddenly he saw a very bright light shining at him when he got closer it got warmer. Then, there was a man telling bodeusious things that he could not understand at all. The place he was in looked like it would go on forever and never stop. The man he saw disappeared. He thought it was a dream and it felt like a dream. This place he was in was nothing like he would think. The man he saw came back and spoke english.

This man said "Your here for a reason rule the galaxy and never think otherwise." The man disappeared for the last time again. He knew what had to be done but he just didn't know how to.

Bodeusious started to hear the chanting that he heard earlier he had no idea where it was coming from but it sounded like it was coming from under him. He walked for it felt like years but it was only for minutes he knew that he was going crazy. He never knew what his purpose was until this moment now.

Chapter Three: Destruction

After bodeusious saw that man he thought to himself while he was setting camp up in the beginning of the cave of what his purpose is. He remember the man saying “Rule the world” and one thought was in his head was to destroy everything in his path.. Months went by and he still saw no sign of life but he never really tried the find life in the huge cave. He always remembered seeing one little patch of light.

Bodeusious saw the light keep getting closer as he was walking towards it. The weird thing he saw suddenly turned red like a big laser and it was pointing right towards him. He felt a surreal blast of heat coming towards him like a huge atomic bomb that just blew. He realized that it might be it for him all the work that he went threw all the years studying. He remember one thing from his studies and Sigma academy was that if a nuclear bomb blows up by you if the bomb is smaller than your thumb run as far as you can and if it's bigger than your thumb do nothing about it.. He realized that it might not even be a nuclear reaction and it might not be in the cave that has to at least go for 1000 to million miles. Bodeusious really wanted to find out what was happening.

Hours went by of walking to the big weapon. Once he got there there was a huge screen of every universe in the galaxy that he can destroy with one click of the button.

Chapter Four: The Big Weapon

The big screen bodeusious saw was interesting it was a very complex language that not many people know about. The words state

“ Only the one with the right skills are allowed to use this universe killer.” Bodeusious was shaking as it kept turning colder as the day went by. All he did was stare at it realizing what he can do to everything. One thought went into his head of how that man he saw said “ You need to rule the galaxy ” as soon as he remembered that he clicked on one of the universes. The Weapon started to heat up as a laser pointed up the sky and shot a huge bomb.

He heard people chanting once again as it started to cool down. Bodeusious saw a group of people start running towards him with huge torches. At least 10 people were holding a throne one of the people said

“ Welcome to our world king ”

They keep telling him to get on to the throne and when he did they carried him to a secret elevator. It was completely invincible because of how the cave was almost pitch black.

It took the a least 20 minutes to get to where there going. The elevator had one huge button. As they kept going down it got warmer and bodeusious had to take of his suit that he has been wearing for years. The first thing he saw was a huge skyscraper with flying cars.

Chapter five: The fall

10 years later.....

This planet is a very surreal planet as it has all of the cities in the underground. This city is called Sebagon as the first ever person who discovered the planet was named Sebagon. Many people aren't very happy as a new leader because they think bodeusious as a communist leader as he orders everyone to do at least 5 years of military work before they can live a free life. The civilians even try to assassinate him as they just want to live a free life.

It was a random tuesday and bodeusious has a a meeting to attend about how there was a record high universes exploding with no sign of why. This day felt off but he could not figure out why. When he was walking to the town hall he felt heat go threw his heart. He knew he would be fine because of how he was immortal right? This can't be the way he goes out. Not with a single gunshot to the heart. He saw the man he saw when he first got to the planet. The man said " You have done your job on this planet, good job." He knew as soon as he said that he was dead. He could still see everything he left behind, the city, the planet, earth, his parents. He wished there was one way to just be a normal person.

Chapter Six: Reincarnation

Suddenly, Bodeusious saw hospital lights flickering in his eyes. He could see it but he couldn't completely .

“Look at that little baby” the doctor said. Bodeusious couldn't believe what happened. Nobody was looking at him with disgust or confusion. Bodeusious realized on the life on Earth version 649E that it's never take things for granted. He regret everything he has done to the people of Earth Version 649E or normal earth but now he can finally live a normal life he always wanted. Years went by bodeusious was loving life as a normal human.

Bodeusious would often get flashbacks of back in the day. He remembered by a little boy and talking to his mother just begging to be normal. He could finally do things that no one wanted him to do like play sports or make friends. Adjusting was hard he had to care more about not getting killed.

Bodesusious turned 60 and he was having some issues with his heart as it became harder to even breathe. Bodeusious went into a long coma because he went into cardiac arrest. Lucky his neighbour was able to make in time before it was to late. The doctors said there was a high chance of him dying. Bodeusious died 20 minutes later. Bodeusious lived a long well eared life 2 times. He will be respected by many.
