Chapter Six: The Final Treasure

After Bianca found his first treasure with his crew he was determined to find the buried treasure that the richest pirate crew left on the planet.

Chapter One: The Lost Cub

There was a small tiger cub in a dark alley all alone because his mother abandoned him. A group of pirates were walking around the alleys trying to find anything valuable, when they came across Bianca the lost cub. They knew they couldn't just leave him there.

“We can't just let this little guy freeze to death out here.” One of the crewmates said.

The captain was hesitant at first but finally decided to take the cub to the ship. “Get him some blankets and water, he must be freezing,” the captain exclaimed. The crewmates rushed to get the things the captain had asked for. They all ran into the cabin with hand full of blankets and bottled waters. The captain was confused at first “Why'd you guys bring so many?” he asked.

“We didn't know who you asked so we just all got something.” some crewmates said. The captain was confused but he took the blankets and wrapped them around Bianca. After Bianca was all wrapped up the captain poured some of the water into a bowl so bianca could drink some.

Chapter Two: Cub in Training

As Bianca started growing up the Pirate crew started to train him on how to be a good pirate. Bianca was only 3 when he got his first super power, which was super strength. He was getting really good at being a pirate at only the age of 8. He learned how to fight and dig for gold, he was really good at fighting.

“Soon you will be able to go huntin like the rest of us.” the captain told Bianca. Bianca thought he was already, ready to go hunting with the crew but the captain thought otherwise. Captain said “your still not quite ready yet bud you still have powers that need to come in.” Bianca sighed and went back to training with his coach, coach Murphy.

“Come on bianca we have to get you ready for your new power to come in tomorrow.” Coach Murphy yelled out. Bianca was wondering what power it would be because he already has super strength, teleportation, and super speed.

“What other powers do I need I already have 3. How many more powers do I need?” Bianca asked confusingly.

Chapter Three: The First Tigrate

After a lot of training Bianca became the first ever tigrate. Now that he's got all his powers in he can almost go on his first hunt. But first he needs to go on a final mission by himself to prove he is ready for his first hunt. Captain sent him off on a 24 hour camping mission, if he can stay one night outside the ship by himself he can go on his first hunt with the whole crew.

Bianca set off into the flaming mountains by himself with only a tent, sleeping bag, water, some food, and a flashlight. He's been hiking for 3 hours and finally found a nice place to set up camp. He got his tent all set up with his sleeping bag neatly placed on the inside. With his flashlight he went out looking for sticks and twigs to hopefully try and start a fire.

I wonder if there's any dangerous pirate crews around? Hopefully not...

He gathers a pile a sticks and heads back to camp, he digs a hole with his hands so he can make a fire pit. He puts all the stick in the hole and grabs two rocks and starts scraping them together to make sparks. After he successfully started a fire he made some food for himself so he wouldn't starve. After sitting outside he finally decided to go to sleep. Early in the morning he had finally finished the challenge and started heading back to the ship.

Chapter Four: His First Hunt

After he returned from his mission the captain thought he was ready so he let Bianca go on his first hunt for gold with the other crewmates.

“BIANCA!” captain yelled.

“Yes, captain?” Bianca asked confused.

“Im allowing you to go on your very first hunt today.” captain said.

“Really, thank you so much captain!” Bianca says in excitement.

Bianca is already at the age of 15 and has 5 different powers; super strength, teleportation, super speed, time travel, and the ability to pause time. He's also gotten very good at fighting over the years of training he's gotten. He gets on the ship and they sailed miles from home with their gold detector. After a while I smelled another ship coming towards us and than i saw in the distance a big ship emerged from the fog around us. I hurried to tell my crew and they made a plan.

“If the ship comes any closer, get the cannons ready.” The captain explained. The crewmates all rushed to get the cannons ready to shoot. While everyone was down their captain yelled “FIREEE!”

6 cannons went off destroying the ship sailing towards Bianca's crew. After their whole ship sank a crewmate used his gold detector and got a signal. Many crewmates dived down to the destroyed ship looking for the gold that should be inside. The divers emerged from the water with their hands full of gold.

Chapter Five: The Treasure

After Bianca's first hunt, captain allowed him to keep going on more and more. On this specific hunt they found the jackpot.

That morning they all got up, put on there jackets and ran on the ship before it left. They were all on the ship heading north to the second tallest mountain peak on the planet. We got on land and started hiking thousands of miles uphill with shovels and bags in hand. They hiked half way when they came across a clean water source, so they stopped to take a break.

They finally reach the top of the mountain and immediately started digging. After a while many of the crewmates started to get tired

"I'm so tired." a crewmate said.

But they had to keep digging. After another hour of digging even more crewmates were getting tired.

"I hit something!" Bianca yelled out.

The captain rushed over pushing everyone aside.

"Keep digging bianca and once the hole gets bigger more mates help." the captain exclaimed. A little bit after bianca pulled a bar of gold out. The captain took it from bianca in awh.

"Keep digging!" captain yelled.

More crewmates got into the hole and started digging more. After a long time of digging they finally dug up all the gold. It was all worth 2.5M dollars.

Chapter Six: The Final Tresure

After Bianca and his crew found the 2.5M dollars he told himself
“I'm going to find that treasure and make us all rich.”

On Bianca's next hunt he set off on his own away from his crew. He knew it was dangerous to go alone but he was determined to give back to his crew that raised him. He pulled out his gold detector and started walking around the mountains. After walking for hours he finally got something on the detector. He followed it all the way to the top of the tallest mountain on the planet. Once the detector stoppe detecting bianca new he needed to start digging. While he was in the middle of digging his crew found him.

“Bianca why would to run away from us?” the captain growled.

“I think I found it.” Bianca exclaimed.

“Found what” the captain asked confusingly.

“The Treasure!” bianca bursted out.

The captain immediately orders crew members toto help me dig. After a while of digging we hit something, Bianca dug it out and it was a big bar of gold. Right as he took it out of the hole another pirate crew showed up demanding for the gold. The captain refused and a huge fight broke out between the two crews determining who gets the gold. The other crew noticed how many of their people gave up and fled leaving all the gold for Bianca's crew.

Chapter Six: The Final Tresure

Once all the gold was dug up his crew brought it all back to the boat with joy. They stored all the gold in their ships cabin. Some of the crewmates started counting how many gold bars we had found. The captain was so impatient to know how much money it cost.

“It comes out to 100M dollars in all!” one crewmate exclaimed. The captain bursted out into tears of joy. The whole crew had a huge party celebrating the large treasure they had found. Bianca and his crew lived happily ever after with their new wealth.
