Chapter One: Life Is Love

Everything is going great and life is good, no one is bothering this planet

Chapter Two: The Shootings

Something looks off about the robots and they seem to be glitching almost all the time

Chapter Three: The Getaway Bot

Now the robots are putting people in jail for no reason they are starting to be really streaky and round in the next 5 months there was so much going on it felt like our planet is going to explode you can't go outside without a robot bothering you it's not peaceful here anymore

Chapter Four: The Wrongs

It came to the point where the robots would come inside your home the only place we were safe I couldn't go to school so I had to do something I sneaked out of the city not telling Mom where I was going and not knowing what will come

Chapter Five: They're Ending

She caught a ship, and hopped on it and it starts to leave the next day I went to an island and started my plan from a newspaper that said the USB was here somewhere I just have to find it then I meet these two robots that are going to help me

Chapter Six: It's Done

They work together for 2 days before finding out the little robot was an enemy now it was me and K-3 that have to save the world in 3 days we were in there cave we got the USB and ran back to the city which took us 2 days on a ship and on foot but I plugged the USB in and K-3 was gone and all the A.I and robots were gone.

Chapter One: Life is love

It was a beautiful summer morning school over in 4 weeks. I was talking to Mom while looking through the window and eating breakfast before going to school. Looking outside, the sky looked bright like the color light pink, the clouds looked like soft baby powder white. I stepped outside and saw kids going to school, grown ups going to work, robots doing what they're supposed to do. And i started walking to school as I was walking someone jumped at me. I let out a loud scream it was just Jillian I should have known it was her she's so funny.

"HAYY TiFi, GOOD MORNiNG" Jillian said while hopping and walking

"Hi Jillian" i repealed in a low voice

I didn't say much that morning, I didn't feel like talking, we got to school and that day we were going to practice using our powers, I had to sit out because Mom doesn't want me using them. I don't know why, I had to sit in the computer room all day. Three hours of being in there felt like 2 days I was getting bored and had nothing to do so. Eventually I got super bored and sleepy I took a nap waking up to a weird sound then saw a robot with a cart taking the school computers. For a second I didn't know what I was looking at. Then my vision got better, it was a V-0 robot in army black and green these robot are not in schools. And definitely not supposed to be with school cromes I stayed quit and went back to sleep thinking everything is ok. After something that felt like 20 days school was over, I grabbed my things and went home not talking to any of my friends. I opened the door to see my Mom watching the news

"Hi Mom" I communicated

"Hay love, how was school" she stated

"it was ok I guess"

"Okey will I made you something to eat, it's in the dining room" Mom said

"ight cool" I said

I went to eat then upstairs in my room to drop off my things, then took a shower afterwards I sat on my bed to watch the news to. I wanted to see if anything had happened today about the computer but there was nothing. i did my homework and went to bed.

Chapter Two: The Shootings

It's saturday Morning, I'm in my room on my phone then I saw something through the window. My window was faced to see the city so I always know what's going on. My house is up a heal, so I get up to see what it was, I zoom in with the smart window the 777th robots have made. Just as I zoom in I saw 2 robots shoot 3 kids that were playing electric outside. At the park the other kids started to run There was no human adults. Just robot babysitters. But they didn't do anything their eyes were pink that's not good. That same day it was all over the news, people started to open up about what happen to them with robots on. i turned of the TV and went outside to get some air then started to walk the Jillian's house. Which was not fair from my house, we played and talked till we could see the pink moon out. My phone started to ring, it was Mom she wanted me to come back home. She sounded so scared.

"ight my Mom wants me to go back home imma head out igh' now" I told her

"Okey cool, should i come to your place tomorrow dan"" Jillian asked

"Yea no problem" i answered

Jilan walked me home half way then we said goodbye. 4 seconds later i hear a loud scream i look behind me to see Jillian on the ground. Blood was everywhere i'm about to run up to her when i felt a hand on my shoulder i sit on the concrete ground. i could see but i couldn't my eye were burning and everything was blurry it felt like forever but ik it wasn't. Then it started to get darker and darker till it was all black.

Chapter Three: The Getaway Bot

I open my eyes and it's still dark then I remember passing out. And what happened to jillian, I wanted to open my mouth and call out to Mom but nothing. it was all nothing just deep silence, I started to try and move my hand and my legs but they felt like they were stuck together. Feeling tears going down my face, feeling like I wasn't real and will never see my Mom ever again i began to sob. Feeling lost and scared I felt a hand touch me shoulder this time it was not human. Then someone ripped something off my face and I could see again. It's not like there was much to see it was just a black room and bones on the left corner. The hand on my shoulder left and a robot appeared in front of my my face it pulled out a knife. I thought it was the end for me but it didn't cut me it started to cut the rope on my hand and lags

“Ok get up, lets go” it says while putting to knief in its system

I'm confused and don't know what to do so I got up and started to walk out with it

“Okey follow me don't make a sound” it whispered to me

I noddod my head in agreement then he opened to the door which looked old and was kinda moldie. He opened the door and all I could see was trees. Leaves and grass everywhere he grabbed my hand and we started running. We rain for a long time I was getting tired and the sky was dark purple so night time was coming. We stopped running it told me told me to sit on the big rock that was next to me, I sat down and he started talking

Chapter Four: Something Is wrong

"Let me start off with introducing my selfie, hi i'm K-Ø, and. The reason your friend was shot is unclear so i can't help you with that but. i need your help there have been some shady things going on lately. And these things don't seem like the robots are doing any good dids. And for the past 3 weeks i've notice there have been an increase amount of merder and ampersand. People and i have a feeling things are not going to get better any time soon. Unless someone does something about it, the world is over you are the only person I can reach out for help and we need to get to the lab where the people are being held. If we don't get there on time the color of our planet will disappear sooner or later. It's all your discretion, so what to you say" He asked

"Um am I risking my life for this" I asked

"It depends if we saksas" He answered

I was thinking for a sec'

"It seems like this will take some time so we keen got to lab for you to rast"

"Okey" I agreed

We got to his lab and he got me a bed, I went to sleep but I kept waking up that night. The next day I woke up and went downstairs. He got me some new cloth to wear and food breakfast. I eat then sat down till he came back, I've made my digestion I'm going to do it.

A photograph of a narrow, dark alleyway at night. The alley is flanked by tall, multi-story buildings. Some windows in the buildings are lit, casting a warm glow. The ground is dark asphalt, and a white arrow points forward, with the Japanese characters "止まれ" (Stop) painted above it. A white line runs along the left side of the road. The overall atmosphere is quiet and mysterious.
