Chapter Six: Back home

Tater Tot and the ocean queen meet up after this all. They have thought about how stupid it was anyways. While she helps him go back home capella starts to talk to the siguel.

Chapter One: Majestic Planet

Back on majestic planet where all evil and scary cultures are is a tall evil volcano named tater tot.

Hi, im Tater Tot the one and only. I got this planet from my parents that have passed away they put secret messages around so that if someone from the water queens spys on me they can't find these messages. Majestic planet can be very powerful if you believe it.

This is my pet and best friend Capella. She is here because I believe and thought of something that would make me powerful and be on my side for when I fight crime.

"This place is cool and all but if you come up on the throne in the sky my place is way better than it is down here," Capella said.

"That's not true because on this planet everything is powerful way more powerful and better than the queens side," I reply.

" True and we have way more food than here," Capella said

"Exactly, we can eat and do whatever we want because this place is very powerful."

Chapter Two: Sunshine Oil

Meanwhile up at the majestic planet was Tater Tot making his special oil to help fight back.

"Capella wanna help me make sunshine oil so we can go take over the queens layer?"

"Sure but can we make sure I have my own bottle so I can help too?" Capella said.

"Yeah just go grab the ingredients," I replied.

Capella goes and grabs the star juice and the oils that can bring this project together.

"LOOK! LOOK! I can finally hold all of the ingredients this time and won't fall," Capella said.

"Capella just don't run you're going to fall!" I said back.

While Capella was running the oils flew up in the sky spilled all over the floor under Tater Tot making him slip into the lava pool.

"AHHHH what is happening?" I said.

Tater Tot opens this magic lair under the pool and everything is spinning and suddenly goes black.

Chapter Three: The Secret Underworld

Tater Tot wakes up and had forgotten what has currently just happened to him.

"Hello? Capella is anyone up there?"

Capella looks over the pool. "Tater Tot you're alive!"

"Yes im alive, but can you do my a favor and bring me the pina colado drink please?"

"Of course anything for you, but we ran out the special ingredient that can help you fly back out of there" Capella replied.

" That's not good then, can you come down here so we can walk together down this path to find a way out?"

Capella flew down the pool, "Okay Tater Tot lets get you out of here!" Capella exclaimed.

Tater Tot and Capella begin walking down the path waiting to find a way out.

The only sounds there was were Tater tot and Capella walking in water.

Then, there was light that was showing down the tunnel. Tater Tot and Capella's eyes got brighter"

" Whoaaaaaaa...." Capella said.

Chapter Four: The Dark Turns

"Look Tater Tot there is light I think we are getting to the end of the tunnel so we can go home" Capella said.

Tater tot moves his head up looking around his eyes are to get wider.

"Thank god I could not stand being in this tunnel anymore it's been driving me crazy" Tater Tot said.

They get to the end of the tunnel and looked around the blue light was glass that had the ocean outside of it.

"Does that mean we are at THE OCEANS SIDE?" Capella said in a high voice.

"I mean maybe but that doesn't mean she knows we are here and don't yell oh my lava!" Tater Tot said to Capella.

Tater Tot and Capella slowly walked out of the tunnel.

"Now we need to be quiet so that the queen doesn't see us" Tater Tot whispered.

They quietly walked over to the bridge and looked down for a few minutes because there was no bridge.

"HEY! STOP RIGHT THERE" The ocean queen said.

"Oh no we are in trouble" Tater Tot said.

Capella eyes has open so big.

Chapter Five: The meets

Capella eyes got bigger seeing that the ocean queen has caught them trespassing on her side.

"We should probably run and get home fast" Capella said to Tater Tot.

"We can't go home the bridge is knocked down we just need to fight her back"

"Oh yeah I knew that already..." Capella said to Tater Tot.

Tater Tot remembers that he had no weapons on him and had to make something up.

Capella grabs this power wand from her backpack and Tater Tot grabs leaves and rolls them up in a ball.

"Ready to fight queen?" Tater Tot and Capella said to the queen

"More than ready too" The queen replied

They start to shoot out the leaves and it smacks in the queen's face. She throws water in their faces making Tater Tot's lava drip everywhere.

Capella grabs Tater Tot's lava that he had all over him and throws it at the queen. After Capella grabs one of the ocean's animals sprinkles some magical dust on the turtle so it can fly and starts to make it a snapping turtle.

"MWAHAHAHAHA what do you think of that" Capella said.

The turtle flies over to the queen and snaps her right in the face.

"OUCH!" The queen said

Then things took a turn the queen turns around in pain and suddenly all the fighting stops.

Chapter Six: Back Home

Tater Tot and Capella walked up to the queen.

"Hey there i'm sorry I didn't mean to make that turtle snap you that hard." Tater Tot said.

The queen turned around and smiled.

"Its okay we all make mistakes I know you didnt mean too" The queen replied

"I think this is all dumb and we should stop fighting though, I can also help you get back home" The queen said to Tater Tot.

"That would be great!" Tater Tot said back.

They all begin to grab piece to make this giant cloud so that they can ride back over to the lava's side. Tater tot and Capella start to grab some ocean water because it has a special power in it that would make a cloud, the queen grabs coconuts from the palm trees so that the cloud can turn strong. And so if they get hungry on the way back they can have something to eat. The cloud starts to form and turn big, red and fluffy.

" Do you think we can become friends and hangout more without any wars?" Tater Tot said to the queen.

" Thats sounds really good" The queen replied.

Tater Tot and Capella got on the cloud and the queen pushed them away.

" See you later ocean queen!" Capella said.

They all smiled and waved to each other. Tater Tot was so much more happy knowing that the lava and water side can get along without and wars.
