Chapter One: The Start Of My Journey

Dam those humans, I have lose them. I begin climbing up the tree, the bark in my hand like a rough cement block. I need to start traveling by tree so they don't get me.

BOOM!

Hey I'm Theodore, just a human boy trying to survive these angry people, you may be wondering, Hey why are those people so angry, that's because they keep thinking I'm the thief that stole their valuable things, I did do, but let's not talk about it... But that's just the start of my story.

I leap for the next branch, my dark brown hair flowing behind me.. There's with a hole in the middle, just enough for me to fit in. I just need to jump enough to get to there.

Please don't slip, you got this Theodore.

BAM!

YES I MADE IT, LET'S GOOO!

Now i'm safe, I wonder if they're gone. It's really awful quit maybe I am safe? I look out to see if there anyone around.

"Yup all clear.", I said.

I jumped back down, and continue walk. I love walking back home, when nobody is chasing you, what a pain thoughts people give me. I sigh, I love the trees covering the walkway to my home, like it's a canopy, but better. These blossom tree are really something, I remember planting them with my parents when I was 4. I was helping my parents out in the garden, I remember ask my mom if I could plant a pink tree that follows a trail back home. Ah what good days thoughts were. Welp i'm home now. I love the feel arriving somewhere safy, after being cas-

"THEODORE YOU LEFT MY BOWL EMPTY!"

"AH!", yelled Crown.

"Crown you need to stop doing that to me!" I scolded at him.

"You keep jumpscaring me out of nowhere, god.", I yelled

"Welp that's not my probl-", he tried to say.

I DON'T CARE!", I screamed cutting him off.

Yeah so Crown is a friend of mine, he's a crow that has a deep black coat with sharp dark emerald green eyes. Crown and I were friends cents I was born. I was the only one out of my family that could see him. I close the door behind me and and walked into the bathroom. I took a shower, and my hair feels so clean and nice after that. I wonder what my parents are doing right now...

"FIRE FIRE, SOMETHING WRONG GET OUT GET OUT", screamed Crown.

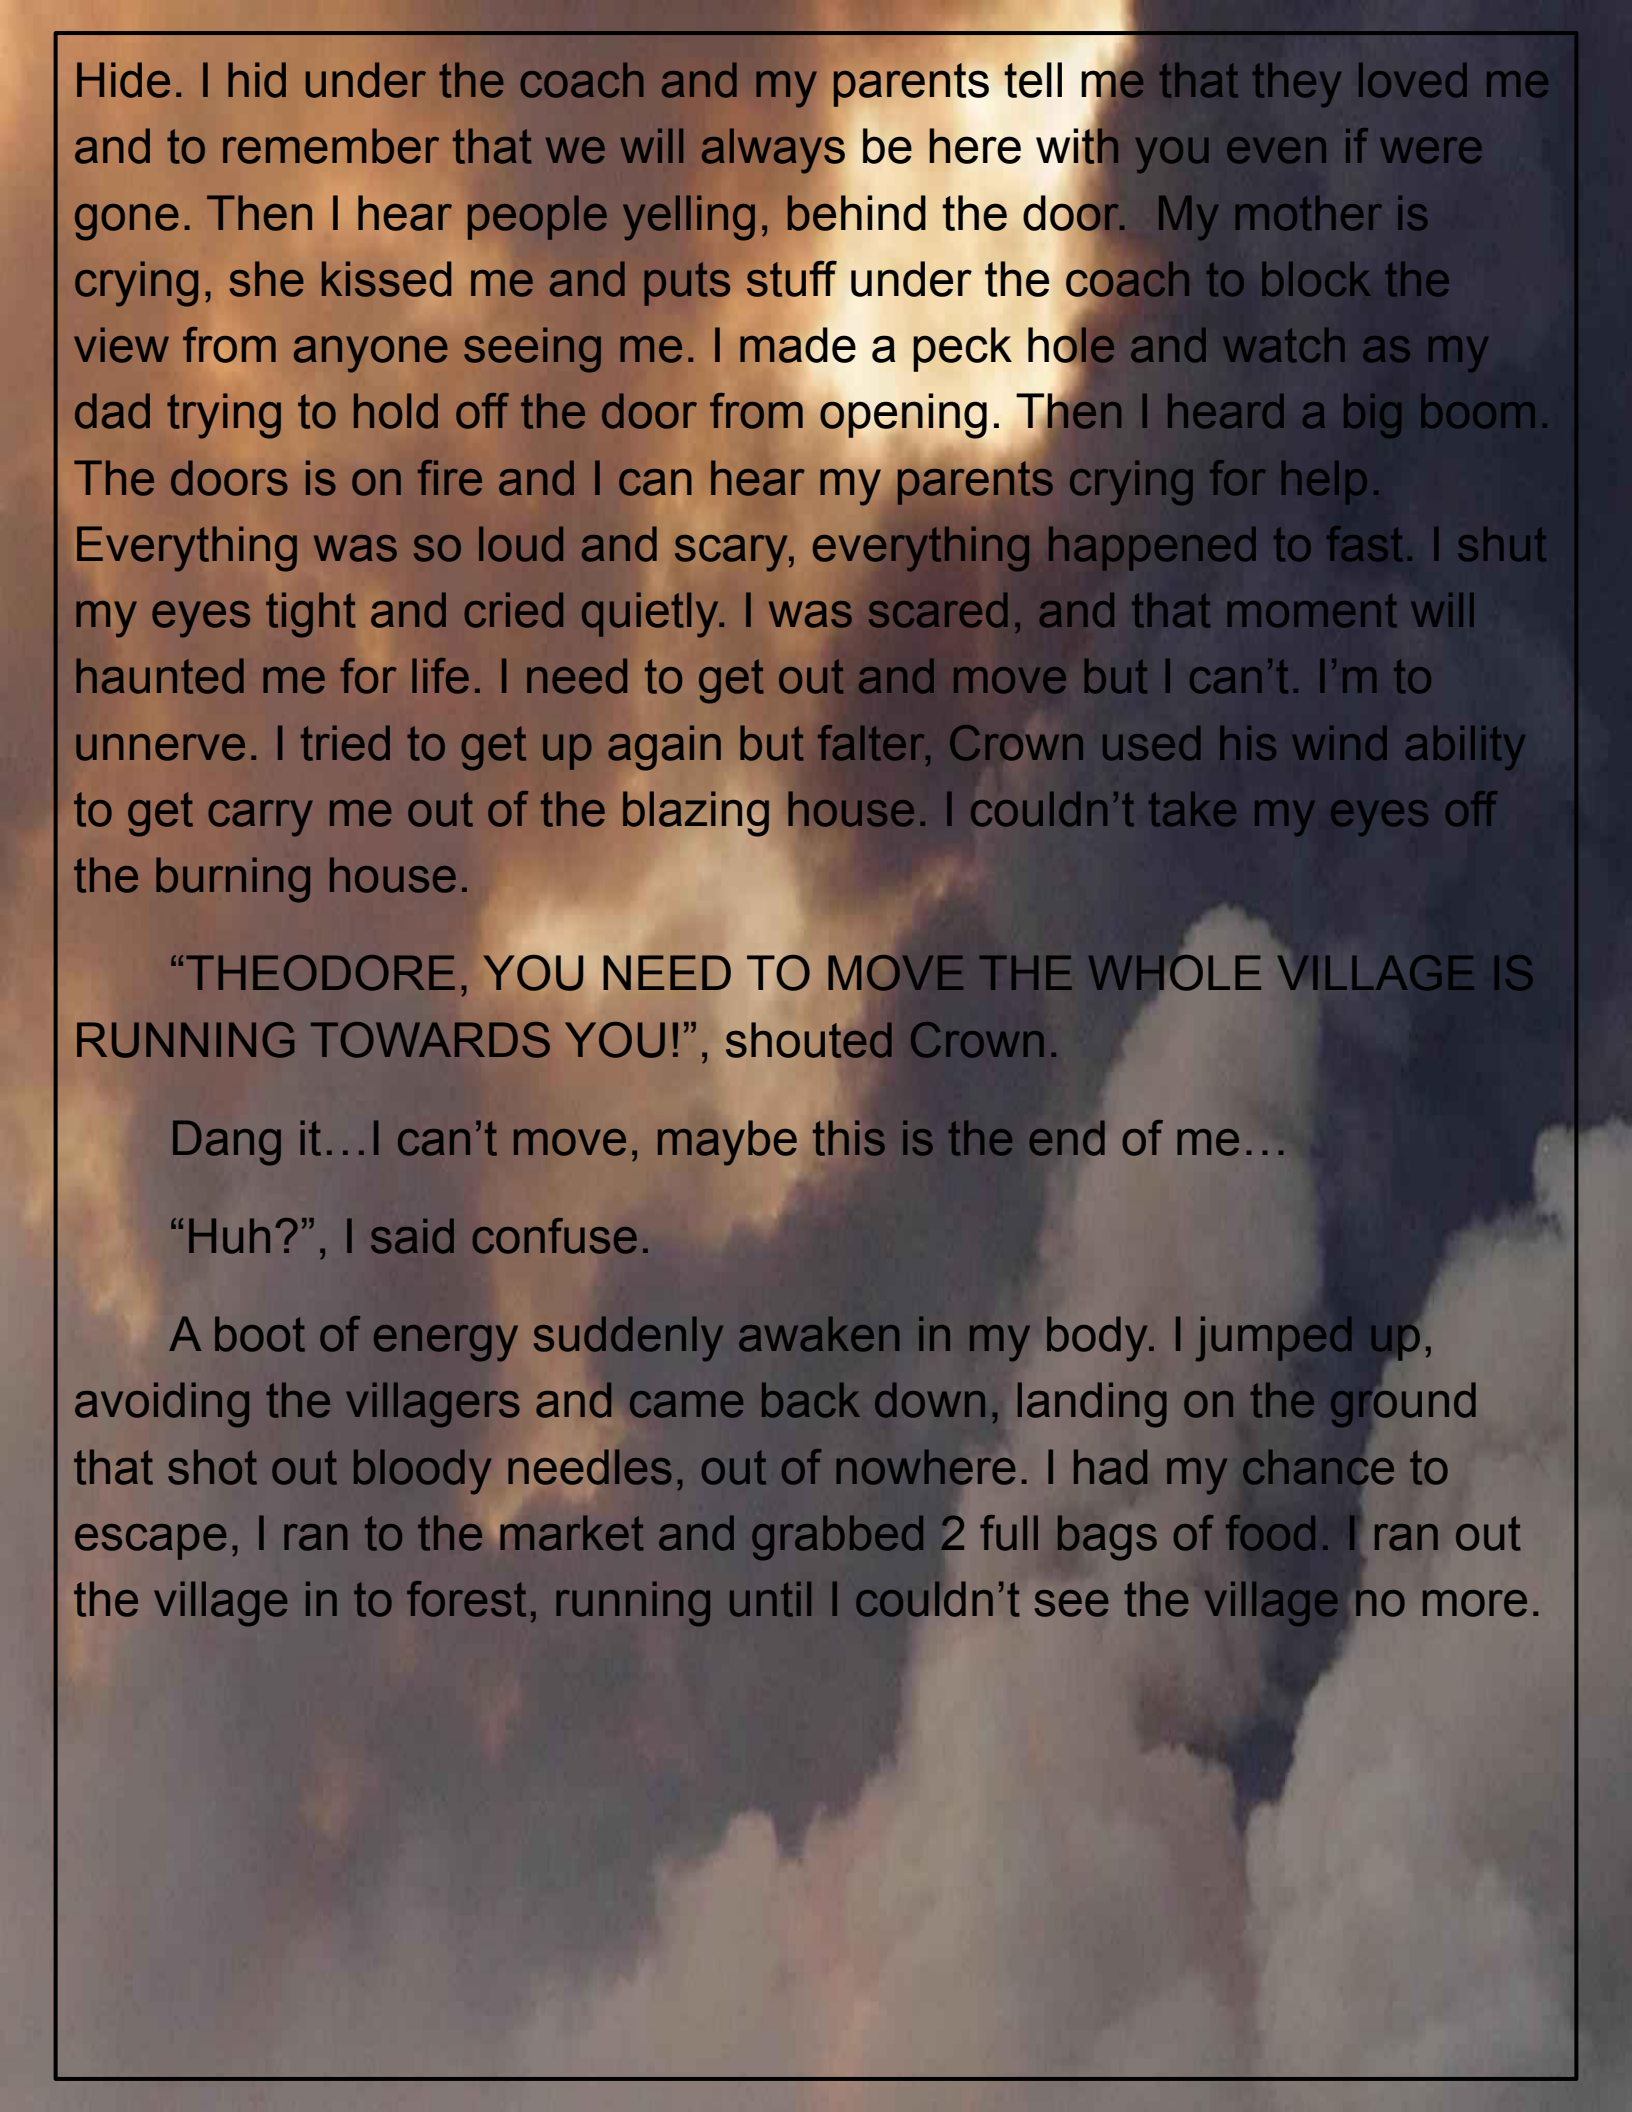

"Huh?", I said.

"Theodore get out", He screm

BOOM!

"The house is on fire...No...NO!", I said.

A member something that I now will never forget. A flashback, Tv playing a movie, my mother singing a lullaby in the kitchen. I was watching sing 1, and my dad rushed out of the door, slamming it shut. Locking the doors and putting things behind the door to block anything thing from coming inside. I was consume and scared because now my mom runs at me from the kitchen and tells me to Hide. I hid under the coach and my parents tell me that they loved me and to remember that we will always be here with you even if we were gone. Then I hear people yelling, behind the door. My mother is crying, she kissed me and puts stuff under the coach to block the view from anyone seeing me. I made a peck hole and watch as my dad trying to hold off the door from opening. Then I heard a big boom. The doors is on fire and I can hear my parents crying for help. Everything was so loud and scary, everything happened to fast. I shut my eyes tight and cried quietly. I was scared, and that moment will haunted me for life. I need to get out and move but I can't. I'm to unnerve. I tried to get up again but falter, Crown used his wind ability to get carry me out of the blazing house. I couldn't take my eyes off the burning house.

“THEODORE, YOU NEED TO MOVE THE WHOLE VILLAGE IS RUNNING TOWARDS YOU!”, shouted Crown.

Dang it...I can't move, maybe this is the end of me...

“Huh?”, I said confuse.

A boot of energy suddenly awaken in my body. I jumped up, avoiding the villagers and came back down, landing on the ground that shot out bloody needles, out of nowhere. I had my chance to escape, I ran to the market and grabbed 2 full bags of food. I ran out the village in to forest, running until I couldn't see the village no more.

Chapter Two: I need to find my parents

I beens walking for 2 days, I haven't had food and water for so long. I even started to think that I should cook and devour Crown. But I can't because he's my friend.

"I'm HANGRY THEODORE, I NEED FOOD. FOOD FOOD!" I'm starting to regret bring him with me, intell I finally said said," IF YOU DON'T STOP GETTING ON MY NEVER I'M GOING TO EAT YOU. AND WHY DON'T YOU GET FOOD FOR YOURSELF, YOUR A DAM BIRD FOR HEAVEN SAKE!" Ugh, I can't believe that something so little, can be so loud and annoying at the same time. I been craving for curry for a while, I wonder if I will ever see a tow-

"Ow, great now a... Is that a town?" Wait, I might just be safe from starving to death.

I never been this happy in my life.

"Hey, crown? Gust what." WHAT!" " FOOD!"

Me and crown walked into the big village with lights that light up the night like the sun, the road way looks like a huge herds of bisons running from danger. I can smell all types of food in the air, I slowly

Make my way to a food stand and order, stemming fish balls with this orange liquid color with chopped pepper and sesame seeds. It looks so good, I was paying too much attention to food that I didn't notice myself drooling. I must be starving. The food stand working gave me the fish balls and I immediately devour the fish balls less than 5 secs. It's so tasty, I can taste the rich flavor and the orange sauce really hits the spot with these fish balls. Oh boy, I can eat these every day. Every bit I took, I savor and make it worth it. After stopping by 10 food stands, wait no, 20 maybe even more than that, I stopped by a hotel and slept for what felt like forever. I woke up feeling weak and the town feels odd. Look out and now all I see is a ghost town that has no body here. I'm super confused now, I know I walked into a big city. I think I'm losing my mind. I turned around and I see an old lady, with pale hair in a big bun, with rings all over her fingers, she has a big nose and is standing by a sign that says fortune teller.

"Hey you, boy...", said the woman.

"Come, Come boy, come closer, take a seat.", she said creepily.

"Who are you?", I asked.

I am a Nobody, just a person or am I?", She said hastily.

I walked over to her stand and sat down.

"TELL ME BOY!", she yelled.

"Find a new house or Find your beloved parents?", said the woman.

"Are you insane, how do you know all of this information...", I said warily.

This woman knows how to get people the hibijibis, for sure.

"Boy are you going to pick?" said the woman.

I totally forgot about that. So I said, "I wanna find my parents!".

"Wise choice young man. You have 1 week and 1 day to find them, you need 3 items to help in battle. The death chain, water of magic, and the rock of wisdom. Good luck on your journey, for you have to face something powerful.", said the woman.

Now I regret saying anything to her. She might have put some curse on me or something.

"Wait what do you mean by-"

BUSH!

A smoke was everywhere she probably used a smoke bomb to disappear. I don't need to worry about her right now the important thing is that my parents are in danger. So I need to go. NOW! I walk out of my hotel room and slipped down stairs, falling on my face, and I heard Crowns voice.

"Embarrassing, I could never.", Crown said under his breath.

"DUDE! I heard what you said...! YOUR NOT SLICK!!!", I said angrily.
"Where did you even go... I woke up earlier and you were gone."

"Oh that... I just wanted went to fly around.", spoke Crown.

"Alright? I guse", I said annoyed. I know he's hiding something. But what, OH SHOOT OMG, OMG, OMG!!!

"CROWN WE NEED TO GET GOING! THIS CRAZY LADY TOLD BE THAT MY PARENTS ARE STILL ALIVE, AND IF I GET THEIR ON TIME WITH THE ITEMS I NEED I COULD SAVE THEM FROM GETTING KILLED.", I said excited and happy.

"LADY!, I meant... Oh a lady really?", suspiciously said Crown.

"Yeah, she's scary and gives my the hibijibis. Boy you should have seen her.", I said.

"Yeah, I'm sure she scary", he said sarcastically.

Right now I just wanna go and get the items and save them!

"Crown here's a map. Can't you read it?", I asked.

"Yup! I remember it all,", crown respond.

"Let's go, now!", I said.

I make my way down stairs, while Crown took of on the air. I looked out just to make sure that nothing was a threat, to me. I ran and felt that someone was following me. I ran faster and, yeah still behind, this must be a joke...right? My mind is constantly tricking me, there shouldn't be anything beside me. Suddenly I was push and kick, punch and smack. Something invisible is hitting me, I need to find out who. I ran, to make sure that the so called ghost is following me. Once I feel it's presents, I will turn and charge at it and punch it down, then beat it until IT relieves itself. Funny how all the it actshalys make sense. I tried it and, it actually works! I grab the invisible person and scanned the body with my hands to find the head. Once i felt it I used my arms to choke the so called ghost to death, onces again.

I yelled," Relieve yourself!"

Boom

Gas came out of nowhere and when the gas was clear a teenagers dude around the same age as me was trapped by my arms.

“Explain yourself,” I said.

“ I will kill you!”, he responded.

He pulled out a dagger and stabs me by the leg brutally. I let him go, and he turned and pinned me to the wall. Stabbing me again but on my arm, then he disappeared. While saying you better remember me... What was that all about, that person is insane. I forgot I was bleeding, bad.

“Welp...it’s the end of me,” I said closing my eyes, accepting my fate.

A flashback came to mind... I was 10, in the middle of dying, I was on the floor, all bloody, after getting beat up by a group of mean kids. They thought watching someone suffer was entertaining, and fun. But once they noticed that I stopped breathing and couldn’t move, they ran away so they didn’t get caught in the scene. I was later found, and was taken to the hospital, to get treated. I woke up with dizzy eyes, moving all around trying to force on something but couldn’t. Aw man I felt dead, it was the worst feeling in my life. I got better after 1 month and had no scars. But, the feeling got beat up tearfully me for the rest of my life. I wish this never happened... huh? A voice is calling for me. I wonder who?

“Theodore...Theodore, wake up please!”, the mysterious voice called out.

“THEODORE!”, it called again.

I woke up gasping for air.

“Ow!”, I said while getting up.

Man, I shouldn’t have got up so fast, my body hurts. Welp that’s what I get for getting up so fast.

“Theodore? Are you okay, you look like a dead cactus fruit the has been bleeding out,.”, Crown said stupidity.

So Crown was the one calling out my name, but how come the voice sound different, almost like a deep god man dude something, that is a warrior. I must have been dreaming right... YEAH. Anyway, WAIT! I remember being stabbed to death and my head slamming on the floor. I reached out to touch my head but nothing. Not even a bump, or a crack. Then I touched my arm and legs, wondering what happened to me.

“Theodore, you look stupid doing whatever your doing. I feel sorry for,”, he said trying to act tough.

He took one look at me, and rolled his eyes, that was giving me, what a loser vibe. GRRRRRRRRR THAT BIRD NEED TO LEARN HOW TO STOP BEING SO ANNOYING! I WILL KILL HIM IF I HAVE TOO! MAYBE I WILL.

“Crown, you have 5 seconds to get out of my face before I do something that you will-”,

“What? HUUHHHHHH???, can’t HEAR you, were you going to say...Regret. AND OHHH I KNOW YOU DID NOT JUST THINK ABOUT SAYING THAT TO ME. OHHHHHHHHHHH HECK NO! YOU WANNA FIND OUT? THEN BET! I WILL SHOW YOU! Y.O.U YOU WHAT'S UP?” he said with confidence.

He gave one look at me trying to tell me whos boss. But then I give him my look and he flew at me using one of his abilys.

“I was train and practicing this move that will R.I.P YOUR limbs, HAHAHMAHAHAHBAUHAJHAJAAa!!!”, he said, in a tone that made him sound like an angry scientists.

I rolled over falling of the bed, slamming into the ground. I standed up and jumped out the 4 floor, glass window. I grabbed a tree branch breaking my fall but frachering my left hand. While glass shards was stabbing my back and shoulders.

After arguing with crown, my hand healed out of nowhere. He both were just hungary. But now where chill. Now I need get the items I need for my upcoming battled. Gotta go find them quike, and fast.

Chapter Three: The hunt in the cave

Now that I have a quest to do I must find a death chain, and water of magic and the rock of wisdom. First I need to find the death chain.

"Theodore you must go north, take a right now!", Crown yelled. I'm glad that I brought crown along, he's been a so called great friend, he's been surprisingly helpful and kind lately. Kinda weird if you ask me. Anyway, I spot a cave in a distance and just one look of the cave gave me an ominous feeling. I know what i'm getting myself into, and I know that get in and out isn't going to be easy.

"Hey Crown?", I said.

I looked around but no sign of Crown anywhere. I wonder if something bad happened to him. He should be find, right? No time to think about him now I only have 1 week to save my parents, I have to go in. I slowly walked into the dark cave, with the feeling that people had be murdered in this cave, along with an feeling that ghosts and souls are hanging around, in this cave. I kept walking, deeper into the cave. I started to realise that the cave was an never ending cave. I start to run back, but there was no exit to be seen. I started to panic, now I think i'm going crazy because now I'm hearing voice. My head feels really dizzy and I can't think or more right now. I see a blur vision of little kids running around laughing and crying. These demon children are talking in an unknown language, and i'm pretty sure that their performing a richual on me. I'm doomed.

I screamed, "LEAVE ME ALONE!".

"PLEASE DON'T HURT ME!". I added.

The ghost children responded with a deep voice that said, " We won't hurt you, but the malevolent entities will.", responded the ghost kids.

"Where am I!", I said.

"Your in the stomach, of a cave monster.", the ghost children respond.

Now I'm freaking out even more, then I black out. I can feel myself floating. I had a feeling that they will bring me to the wendigo, where the chain weapon is located. I heard screaming, of a human being murder. My left eye opened little, and I see rusted cages that had dead people in it. I didn't want to end up like them so I tried to break out from being parizlied. You got this Theodore, just do the impossible! I woke up and found myself tied to a chair.

"Hello Theodore...", said a mystery voice.

"Who are you! Want do you want you monster human eater!", I said terrified.

"I just can't want to eat you, so I can gain your great fathers abilities.", yelled the mysterious person.

"What are you talking about, I never met my grandpa before, so what are you saying!", I spoke.

"Your great grandfather trapped me here, with his blood cure ability. He locked me here for ageds, I'm tired of it, but now that different news!", screamed the malevolent entities.

The malevolent entities ran towards me, and I moved and saved myself in time, before getting eaten. I broke out from the roped that tied me to the chair, and suddenly had a rush of energy throw my body. I suddenly ran at the malevolent entities, slash it into small pieces. I was confused where I got the energy from, maybe it was an adrenaline, wait no it couldn't be because this type of boost is not human. Maybe the blood powers i inherited from my grandfather. While still thinking about it, I didn't notice that the chain weapon was coming at me. I thought I was a goner but the chain happily wrapped around me, like it was trapped their along with the malevolent entities. Now that I got the weapon in need I just need to get out of this monster cave.

I walked around the cave and got lost multiple times, and finally found the exit. I walked out of the cave, but I somewhere else. This place is wonderful, a waterfall that sparkle golden, and the river flow so smoothly and clean. Koi fishes run along the river, with their beautiful orange, black white colors. There was a pier and a mysterious figure fairy that has large wings and a tough with faded white colors, the fair had white hair and blue eyes with frost bit lashes. I heard a sound that remind my of to rock grinding each other. I turned around and the cave was gone, now I'd screw up really bad. But it's okay, because I had a feeling that the water of magic, the item I need was here. I just need to look for it. I looked back at the fairy, but no sign of it.

"Well it gone...", I said hoping that I can see the fairy again.

A thunderbolt hit me, out of the sky, or so I thought.

"AHH!", I screamed in pain.

The fairy was probably the cause of the thunderbolt. My eyes flash white bright, hurting my eyes. Light bomb, maybe? Just something bright flash my eyes, and I can't see. My vision is back and now I see blue lighting coming straight to my face. The blue lighting perst throw my skull entering into my brain... BUT i give it and send it back killing the fairy

"Oh shoot...", a tiny voice said.

A burst of blood came out of the tiny fairy.

"You thought you can kill me?!?!", said the fairy

Ha your getting to cocky, you underestimate me, KID!". The fairy added.

“No you’re getting to cocky, peony fairy.”, I said back.

“BLOOD NEEDLES!”, I yelled.

I kill the fairy in a instant, with that move. Then fairies started showing up and form something big, I looks like a monster.

“Oh this... THIS IS GONNA BE FUN!”, I screamed.

I rush to the fairy monster that forms a gym fairy with lagere wond. I was cooked, They zap me faster than a plane. Shoot I need to form a starge. BRAINSTORMING... STILL BRAINSTORMING!

“AHA THAT WILL MIGHT ACTUALLY WORK!.”, I said.

Time to test my one shot combo. I leap into the air. Soaring like a bird. I spin and cut my self porning out blood, splattering all over the fairies.

“Bye, Bye...”, I said proudly.

The needle spiked out their bodys, killing have of them. Darn it I didn’t even know that there were healing fairies. It’s okay, I got them where i want them. I turn back, used bloody canon blood bomb came out of my hand fling into the air hitting and skipping a lot of them.

“HA! YOU DUMB FAIRIES ARE DROPPING LIKE FLIES”, I said happy.

“FAIRIES COMBINE DRAGON DANCE!”, yelled the smallest fairy.

“This is my chance to use DEATH CHAIN!

“COME OUT MY OLD FRIEND... HAHAAHAHAHA”,I said knowing I’ll win.

The death chain comes out behind me heading towards the dragon. Now the dragon fairy I comething to. Them both collide smacking into one another like a mega epic battle scene. Black smoke came out of nowhere and a sonic boots wind came towards me almost sending my flying.

Wow... that death chain is something else... dead fairy start falling to the ground, like rain. one last fly alive...

“FAIRY DUST MOON SHINE!”, yell the week fairy.

BAM!

The moon shine on me and a beam of laser from the moon shined on me striking me, out cold. Now death chain knows his job, to protect me while i'm relaxing on the floor. Please death chain have the same mind as me... Strike them hard! Watch out for me, make sure I don't die. Then I knocked out from exhaustion. I had a dream of food...

#FOODFORLIFE!!!. I woke up finding death chains wrapped around me. I think that the water of magic was in front of me the entire. Some fairies were on fire, and all of them review a stone and a bottle. I took 3 stones and 3 bottles and filled the bottles up with water from the river.

“Death chain, DO YOUR THING!”, I yelled.

He made an exit with one slash. I ran to the glowing light and arrived on the mainland.

Chapter Four: Mastering blood manipulation

Now, that I found all the items, I need to train and mastery blood manipulation. I made wooden targets, humans and birds, to use for my training. I first wanted to test out blood needles, the one that I used in at the village. I stomped on the ground and a 14 feet tall needles emerge out of the ground. I was shocked and excited. I tested more things that I could do with my new abilly. Learned 6 moves, I even gave them a name. Blood step shoots out needles from the ground that parizlieds the oponit, The bloody dragon claw, that makes me have claws like a dragon. Bloody roots, that trapped, anything I want. Snake bite, that bites a person that drops poison acid in their veins that make them root, until their bones show. Blood prison that summons the person in a blood room, that pulls the aponit in the bloody lake to drown them. And the night time beast, that turns me into a monster that I can't control. So I have to avoid using this, during battle. After 5 days of training I mastered blood manipulation. So with that out of the way I used my blood powers to skate on the grass to give me a boost to find my Mom, and Dad. While skating I practice my aiming on trees, plants and rocks. Crown also practice his 3 abilities

Windy wind, that moves objects and people around. Air cutter, that slashes that air, and sends them at a point. And Dark mist, that blocks the enemy vision, and release poisonous gas. Crown and me was training intell a tree man, popped up and threaten Crown that he's going to eat him. I use Bloody roots to trap him and we both went along with ara day. Crown was being really nice and said a lot of kind things, like your amazing, wow your cool, I respice you, and more. I thought that was weird but he made me feel good about myself. Crown and I had dinner, and talk and got along really while.

"Hey Theodore if I like ever... Never mind," said Crown.

"Wait no, tell me, I wanna know.", I said wondering.

"For get it.", Crown said.

I respond, "Aright, whatever you say,".

Now we arrival at a spooky, dark area where light probably doesn't shine at all. The grass looks dead and dead trees without leaves are slouching. Well It's time to go in...

"Hey Theodore? I don't know about this.", said crown.

"Your the best friend I only had and I need you, I mean it Crown.", me trying to prosway him.

"Fine I'll go.", Crown reply unsure.

"Let's go in!", I shout.

"Let's go in...", respond Crown.

Chapter Five: The underground lab and the trader.

Crown found a steel door that has copper like rust on the handle. I lift of the lids and led into an underground. Layer, with dim lights. "Hey Crown? Can you watch my back, and I'll watch yours.", I said "Okay, s-sounds good.", neervely spoke Crown.

The so called underground area was actually a lab. There's papers, After and before test results, bones, DNA, blood and lab materials. This place is not giveing, a historically vibe I thought it would. We kept going in deeper and deeper. Out of nowhere candles light up, and the room shined. There were cristance on the wall and I was stune about how beautiful they were.

"Wow...So pretty... and breathtaking.", I said while being hypnosis.

"SNAP OUT OF IT! YOU'LL DIE!".

He pokes me in the head with his sharp beck and made me snap.

"What happened?", I said while rubbing my eyes.

"DON'T YOU EVEN LOOK AT THE CRYSTALS! THEY WILL CONTROL YOU. YOU'RE EVEN LUCKY I SAVED YOU IN TIME!", shooted Crown.

"How do you know that?...", I reply.

"UHHHHH, I JUST KNOW. ThAt'S aLI!", Crown said weirdly.

I turn around meeting a man in a dark green black suit with a bloody gun. He looks like a mafia person that found his pray, after a long time.

"Hello, Theodore.", the man sudden said.

"You better back off, I'm not afraid of you.", I said increagly.

"Oh, that's a shame i'm kill you anyways.", he said abruptly.

He grabs me and pointed the gun at my head, your gonna die here.

The man spoke, "Say goodbye to your friend."

"THEODORE NO!", yelled Crown.

The same burst of energy rushed through my body again, giving me the strength I needed to battle.

"TAKE THIS!", I screamed.

I used bloody step and the needles are higher this time. About 30 feet tall. He moved out of the way in time but got his leg suck. He pulls the trigger and aims and my head and pulls it. I can feel the bullet go throw my head. I knew I was goner...THE BLOOD POWERS reviled me and combine my cells and vens back. I was amazing how that happened. I forgot about the man and moved my attention on him.

"Now to finish you off!", I said

"BLOOD ROOTS!", I added

The bloody roots trapped him and squeeze him to death, crushing his bones. I looked away, and went on walking. Then another enemy ran towards us out of the dark and used his claws to grabbed me and crush my head, while laughing like difromed highinia. I used my Blood dragons claw to to stab him in the ribs, ripping out his organs. I shut my eyes, feeling sick. I started feeling nasive and ended up throwing up. Killing them in such a violent way, left a sick feeling in my stomach.

But I had to do it to save myself. For some reason Crowd was silent I understand why. Seeing me a kind, nice, brave person, killing a nonhuman monster in a violent manner. But it's me that dies or them that dies.

After fighting so much I got over it and just went on a speedrun deafening every monster in the way. At the end, me and crown arrival in a crystal area, that had dark glowing crystals that had a faded dark red coloring. A cage is at the ended. It looks empathy. Then someone pushes me into the cage. It was crown...

"Crown?... what are you doing...", I said consuized.

"I'm sorry...", Crown respond sadly.

Then he flew away, and left me alone. Trapping me in this cage...

Chapter Six: M-Mom...Da-Dad...?

Now, i'm stuck in a cage. I think I can break out of it.

"Blood explosion!", I screamed.

Nope not good either. There's like some powerful force field that prevents me from doing anything.

"DAME IT!", I yelled.

I shouldn't never trusted Crown... he was probably acting strange because he knew that this was going to happen! I thought he was my friend... my family. I'm crying now, while murmeing things. A shadow caught my eye and it seemed like something was moving.

"You thought my son Crown was your friend.", said the voice.

"Nope he;'s just helping me use you to get me out and escape the prison your grandfather placed! You are nothing to him," he added
I breathed hard over working my mind.

"Aww looks like someone is having a hard time...", he also said.

"No... NO THIS CAN'T B-B-BE! HE WOULD NEVER... HE NEVER HAD A FATHER. RIGHT? HE WOULD NEVER BETRAY ME I'M THE ONLY FAMILY HE HAS?". I said unsurton

"Well it looks like he did.", he reply.

I rushed towards him and used blood step. Hitting him and parizling him. Then i slame hime head on the floor grading his body, and then used blood explosion that bursted in his face the burn right through him.

"Thanks you for showing my what you can do. Now, it's my turn.", he said.

He twist and grabbed my arms and spined like crazy and sending me into a rocky wall.

BOOM!

Dark crstalys came out of the walk spiking me in the spine piercing throw my lungs. I splatter blood on him and needle spikes out of his face damaging him.

"YOUR NOTTING!", he yelled.

Now i'm trap in a diamond przion, I tried to get out but couldn't.

"Now die.", he said enjoying me surfer.

Flat long crystal, was crushing me. I felt like dying.

"YOU KNOW HOW MAD ANNOYING YOUR ABILITY IS?.", I yelled.

I need to get out fast before i'm crushed to death. DAME IT! DAME IT! DAME IT! I need to use blood explosion to push back the crystal crushing me. Then I need to repeat it again more powerful, than the other. YES! I finally broke out. The man grabs me and his punches feels hard, every time he hit. DARN! I CAN FEEL MY RIB CAGE BREAKING! GOTTA DO SOMETHING FAST. I used my hand to grab Crown dad's head and head but him breaking mine and his skull.

I yelled out,"BRAIN DAMAGE,".

Now that he's bleeding, might be able to weaken him even more.

BLOODY ROOTS AND DRAGON CLAW! The bloody roots got him by the leg and drags him, slamming him on rocks. While that's happening I used dragon claw slashing him while he's swinging.

BUSH!

"REMEMBER ME FROM THE VILLAGE!", yelled the teenager.

"SO YOU DID COME BACK, YOU LEFT BECAUSE YOUR WEAK AND SCARED!?!?!", I said.

"YOUR NOTTING! BLOOD STEP!", I yelled.

After using blood step I used snake bit to poison him, slowing down his movement. Crowns dad tried hitting me on my leg, but miss terrible as I lunch a deadly kick.

This isn't a fair fight, im only 14 and is fighting a grown man, and a teen? How week can they be... kinda sad not gonna lie. I dodged all their attacks and moves, slowly waiting for the right time to strike a critical hit. AN OPENING COME ON!!! I ran to the rock walk jumping off of it boosting my speed 10%. I then ran back and tired a new move, even though it might not work.

"TIME FOR MY NEW MOVE!", I yelled.

I jumped up into the air coming back down.

"Drilling skull", I screamed.

I slammed the teen and crowns dad heads into the ground. Greta now my chances to use blood canon.

I send the canons towards their back pinning them both hard to the poor ground. I need to use bloody root to trap them, then I will suman them to the bloody room. Just to ask question before finishing them off. I trapped them, so now I gotta ask questions.

"HEY! You two...What was you motivation for attacking me?", I said annoyed.

"Oh... AND IF YOU DON'T ANSWER, and TRUFULLEY I-WILL-KILL-YOU. Understand?", I add.

"Okay fine", said the teenager.

"My reason to kill you was to free my dad.", he said. Wait so this is crowns sibling... I mean they all have green eyes, so they definitely related.

"How about you Mr.", I said with addituite.

"I need to kill you to complete my escape,", said crowns dad.

"What do you mean?", I said wondering what he'll say next.

"To complete the amount of people I killed, that your kind only,", he answered.

“So you ate my panertens?... You better not lie,”, I said while breathing fast.

I came all the way here to save them...

“NO! NO! NO!” I said loader and loader, every second.

“YOUR JOKING! RIGHT?”, I said.

“I enjoy tearing them apart. Ripping their limbs one by one, making them watch me eat them alive!”, said Crowns dad.

“I had a chance to save them, I was to late, it was mine fault- wait it was your fault...YOU KILLED THEM NOT ME!”, I screamed on top of my lungs.

“I guess I have to kill you,”, I said, not feeling like myself.

I unless the monster turning into a bloody bone monster. I couldn't control my madness. My flesh ripped off my bones, my teeth looks like a lion after murdering a human. My hands growing bigger than my head with overgrown claws, bigger than the 20 feet. Blood poured out of my hands and mouth. I broke the underground lab tearing of the root apart. I tried to control the demon but it had a mind of its own. I let the blood monster out for to long that I let it lose. I can only watch as I destroy everything in my path. Killing people, destroying building, creating chaos. I can't do anything, I try to close my eyes but can't, I'm force to watch this. The teenager can in front of my using a move that made day turn into night like a light switch. The monster grabs him and he disappeared. Then little bombs blur my vision, but the monster can still sense that the teenager was around. In a flash the monster grab him and open his mouth to relive 2 Sharp tongues with blood dripping out of it like a venomous snake. He got away in time but of cut and paralyzed, adn poison at the same time.

“ THEODORE STOP this isn't you... I KNOW YOU, please stop! i'm sorry, about me and your parents”, said crown.

The monster is now heading towards Crown, but then changed its mind and had it's focus to Crowns dad.

“YOU CAN NEVER BEAT ME, YOU RAT CRYSTALS OUT RUSH!”, confidently said Crowns dad.

The monster ran at him breaking thru the thin crystals, The monster used some move, that made bloody cry that send out sonic waves, sending everything around the monster flying. Creating a perfect circle around the monster. There is no way that Crowns dad could have survived that from this beats. Then wind came from behind me, the wind came from Crown. He could have escaped and save himself but watched.

“Air slash!”, Crown yelled while crying.

“STOP IT THEODORE, I KNOW YOU CAN CONTROL THIS MONSTER! I BELIEVE IN YOU”, yelled Crown.

The monster then came out and went to Crown. COME ON CROWN MOVE, PLEASE I DON'T WANNA HURT YOU AND LOSE YOU TOO.

“It's okay if you hurt me, I forgive you... Remember I always love you...”, said crown.

He's...dead, gone, lifeless. And I killed him...I turn back to myself again, I tried to walk but was too weak. I crawl my way over to crown.

“I love too...brother, I'm sorry”, I said closing my eyes.

“Hey mommy? I just had a weird dream.”, said young Theodore.
