Chapter One: Don't Buy Food Without Me

It was about 12pm afternoon, I thought to myself "Dumplings or Oatmeal today.." I laid down on my bed just thinking for 10 minutes to see what I'm going to make for the day. Then I remembered "ahh, oatmeal for the little animals". So then I made up my mind until suddenly Gucci Doodle came flying through my door but hit himself instead on the glass window. I opened the window and said "why can't you ever knock!"

Gucci Doodle got up and flew into the window and said, "ARE YOU GOING TO BUY FOOD?" Joe Monkey walked out the door and headed to the shop. Gucci Doodle followed behind him.

Once we got there, Gucci Doodle flew into the shop and fell on a small bucket that was full of little jolly ranchers and he had made that bucket tilt over and all the jolly ranchers had fell on the ground.

"GUCCI DOODLE IT IS NOT THAT SERIOUS". I yelled out. Once again, Gucci Doodle falls. As he was just laying there, I went and found 5 packs of oatmeals.

Later that day while making my oatmeals I suddenly heard loud knocking on my front door. I did not think much of it and when I opened the door, it was the big bear!

"I smell something tasty in this house" Said the Big Bear. I gasped out loud and told him

"THEY'RE NOT FOR YOU THOUGH" I shouted at him and slammed the door in his face.

"This isn't the right timing to argue right now because I had things to do at home!" I said to myself storming to the kitchen. He tried to break in but the door was locked with chairs to make him not come break in.

Chapter Two: Turn Up The Volume

“What a beautiful day” As I said yawning sitting at the dining table. I had other things to do too so as I got out of the kitchen I went and got my clothes that are already worn and wash them. As I was in my Washables room, I found a small pair of jeans that were purple. I was confused but I soon knew who it was.

“GUCCI DOODLE COME BACK RIGHT NOW”. I yelled. Gucci doodle come right at my window, but this time she didn't hit her self. As she came in she says “WHAT HAPPENED”. I pulled out the purple jeans and had a furious face. Gucci doodle just looks like she has nothing to do with this. We both just stare at each other. For 5 minutes me and Gucci doodle just..tilt our head to each side. Looking confused.

“You know maybe that's just an misunder-” Gucci doodle says in a calm voice but then I cut him off. I started yelling at Gucci doodle to take care of his own clothes. It as if i'm his maid in my OWN HOUSE! I threw the purple jeans right at Gucci doodle and she had flew away. A few minutes past when I got done putting them in my washables I suddenly had heard so many knocks on the door.

“OPEN THE DOOR BIG BEAR IS TRYING TO CAPTURE US”. I immediately got up and ran to my door. Then I saw so many chairs are stacked up covering my doorway and in front of my door!

“GOLLYS WHO PUT SO MUCH CHAIRS IN FRONT THE DOOR” I said as I yelled. I throw the chairs onto the ground and opened my door. A bunch of little animals came running in and the big bear was standing there smirking at me!.

“GIDDY UP” I raised my voice to the little animals so that I could close the door shut on big bear.

Chapter Three: Oats

Later that day, I took the little animals into my room and went back to my front door to confront Big bear. The little animals start talking to each other about how scary it was. But for me! How could I ever be scared! I walked off as my red tutu skirt starts flipping and flopping on each side!

“SHOW ME HOW SASSY YOU ARE” As I opened the door with my rolling pin. But..I didn't see anyone. Until Big bear randomly scares me and says “You’re not scared of me huh” As he giggled in my face. I screamed but I had to stay nonchalant and mysterious. I gave him the stink face ever!

“Show me what you GOT!” I shouted at him. Big bear was walking backwards and started breakdancing. As I watched with a open mouth and eye wide open. But I needed to look as if I am not gonna let him win! Then I heard a loud beat music playing. He had a speaker!

“I’LL SHOW YOU WHAT I GOT” I yelled from afar. Big bear stops dancing and yells back “SHOW ME THEN”. I stormed up close to him and started to break dance even harder than him! Neighbors came out and started watching our whole scene. I went to his speaker and BOOM! Music starts popping! I start popping! We all start popping! I started model walking back to my door and then break dance again. I showed him what I have that he does not have. Big bear just looks at me, then smirks and walks away with a strong wind. As I watch him walk away I hiss at him.

Chapter Four: Failed

“YOU TROLL STOP TROLLING AROUND MY HOUSE TALKING ABOUT JOJO SIWA.” I heard coming from my neighborhood. I was still in a robe and my hair was still rolled up in rollers as I came out. I didn't care and just went on with my day. As I was getting ready I saw a troll walking on the sidewalk in my neighborhood. It was unusual to see trolls in my neighborhood because they are apparently dangerous to come out and walk around neighborhoods. As I walked into my bathroom I heard a loud vacuum outside my house. I mean a LOUD vacuum. Then when I have got done with getting ready I came out and saw a troll riding on my red scooter!

“YOU BIG FEET TROLL GET OUT MY SCOOTER” I chattered. Then out of nowhere the troll pulls out so many leaves and threw them at my pretty face! I saw neighbors coming out to see the scene we were making.

“YOU ARE GOING TO PAY” I clenched my teeth. I dropped my gucci bag on the ground and pulled out my rolling pin. The troll got scared and ran away.

“YEAH RUN AWAY BIG FEET”. I yelled from afar.

After all that commotion I got my red scooter back and headed to Skip To My Lou the most delicious, elegant, popular, fancy, and luxurious restaurant in my hometown. I got there and before I got in I obviously had to look in my little mirror I brought to see if I looked glowing. And obviously I looked stunning. I walked in with my model walk and saw my special person.

“Hey there beautiful” Limp shrimp says to me. I gave him a big smile

“Hey there handsome man” I said as I also thanked him.

“Your hair is glowing like always” He said back. In my thoughts I was going crazy for him even though he only seen me one time! OH MY GOSH HE SAID MY HAIR IS GLOWING!

“Aw, your eyes are beautiful.” I said to him. But for 10 minutes all we did was compliment each other back and forth until the waiter came and asked what we would like to eat. We talked and chatted. We both most definitely had cooking skills in common! But then it wasn't until Big Bear came in asking everyone for food. I got embarrassed and tried to look away so that he does not recognize me.

“Uh what is going on” Limp shrimp asked. I just kept looking down until Big Bear came and ruined my date.

“Well, Well, Well. Look who it is. So pathetic.” Big Bear looked down on me and just laughed. I looked up and hissed at him.

“Who was that?” Limp shrimp questions me. I just casually gave an awkward smile.

“Just a random!” I gave a little giggle and smiled and brushed it off.

Chapter Four: Failed

But before we get to our date, this is how we met. It was just a regular day for me, obviously after taking care of the little animals because of Big bear I would be getting oatmeals at the shop. Then I had ran into this handsome man.

"Two bags of Strawberry oatmeal please!" I said to one of the workers. I was just standing there waiting for my oatmeal until I saw Limp Shrimp. I immediately fell in love with a stranger. We made eye contact and I felt butterflies in my stomach!

"Maam here are your bags of Strawberry oatmeal" I heard from one of the workers repeating their self.

"Sorry! Thank you." I said with a forgiving tone and embarrassment on my face. I looked back at him as I walked away, but then he comes up to me.

"Meet me at Skip To My Lou on Friday, the date will be amazing" He winks at me and walks back to the store. I've never had this much butterflies in my stomach before!

Chapter Five: Fragments of him

A few weeks past

It has been a few weeks now, and Limp Shrimp, my special person, and I had to have a talk about us. We went to a park where nobody goes.

“I've thought about this for the last few days now. I don't think we should continue talking and seeing each other anymore. There is no easy way to say it. You are an attractive and great person, and even after our fun dates, you showed who you are by your actions towards other people, especially Big Bear.” Limp Shrimp said with a hollow, soft-spoken voice.

“I understand where you are coming from. I know how I act around others, and it could be frustrating for you to see and look at.” I said with a little voice crack.

“I don't like being with you, and it's not your fault. We're still young, and we have so much more in life for our future.” Limp Shrimp replied in an instant. I just looked down, and there was pure silence for 5 minutes. We both just sat there. I tried my hardest not to make a sound or show him a tiny tear. I mean, he can't just throw this away after all this time. I know it's my fault that I acted the way I did, but cant I get another chance? I kept asking myself so many unanswered questions.

Chapter Five: Fragments of him

“Is there anything you want to say or ask me?” Limp shrimp asked. I stayed quiet for a minute because I would never understand if I asked him so many questions.

“No, I wish you the best in life, Limp Shrimp. I hope your parents are easy on you, and you achieve your goals.” My voice shakes and trembles trying to get each word out. Big Bear surprised me when he came out crying.

“AGH, WHAT A LOVE STORY” Big Bear said while sobbing. Big Bear was emotional too..? I was confused.

“YOU TWO-” Big Bear couldn't say the words because of how emotional he was.

“YOU TWO WERE PERFECT” Said the Big Bear. I started to sob more. Limp Shrimp stayed quiet.

“I MEAN, I MEAN MY LOVE STORY ENDED JUST LIKE THIS.” Big Bear starts to sob even more. Limp Shrimp walked away and never looked back at me. If I wanted to change, I would. Just for him. But it was too late. I guess our story had ended just like that. Even though it was just for a few weeks, we both had so much memories in such little time.

“AGH THIS IS SO EMOTIONAL” Big Bear starts to come towards me, and we both go back home. On the way home, I tend not to show my emotions, so it was just pure silence while Big Bear talked about how his love story ended just like ours. Once we got home, it felt weird. I mean everything I did and see reminds me of him. How will I ever get over my first love? For now, I heal.

Chapter Six: Let's See Where The Wave Takes Us

After a long time of healing, I've finally got over Limp Shrimp. I learned how to let things go if it's not meant to be. Me and Big Bear have finally got along now and changed how we are from the past. I mean, I guess.

"Dumplings or Oatmeal?" Big Bear walked in on me while I was mopping the floor.

"DON'T COME STEPPING IN" I said. I was using my wings so that I could not walk over my slippery floor. Although I never gave food or was never generous for giving food to Big Bear, it's always good to be a nice person to your peers. Later in the afternoon, Big Bear helped me build a shed for the little animals to stay. It was always my dream to feed the little animals and have a safe place for them!

"COULD YOU HURRY WITH THE SCREWDRIVER" Big Bear has been waiting impatiently. I acted as if I can't hear him.

"DARN IT COULD YOU HURRY UP" Big bear raises his voice.

"Don't stop get it get it" I said back to big Bear. Big Bear hissed at me and walked back in the house.

It was about to be evening and I have almost everything done.

"BEARY" I shout from outside so that Big Bear knows I need help.

"What do you want!" Big Bear says in a annoyed voice.

"Help me do the door!" I ask help from Big bear. We both start working on the door but it wouldn't work. I thought we were doing this the right way. We go through each of the boxes and turns out it was a window.

"So look who needs help" Big Bear said to me with an attitude. I just rolled my eyes back and started working on the door. We finished and after Big Bear goes home and I went to go have a good night. It was morning and I was planning to go get the little animals to see their new home but they were already in my backyard. What a surprise!. They all were so deeply in love with their new home. I made oatmeal and fed them just like how I always dreamed of.
