Backstory: Unilight comes from a place full of Unicorns, she was born half human though, which makes her unique and an outsider. She wants to travel to the human world like her mom, her mom is a unicorn who met a human and fell in love. She has been bullied her whole life for being different so she wants to be human.

Inventory

Bafoonie's

Bafoonie's are a snack that Unilight is obsessed with. They are like marshmallows and cotton candy combined.

Labubu

A Labubu is a plushie that was invented and ever since Unilight is obsessed! They are cute and scary.

Wakimi Necklace

A wakimi is a necklace all unicorns have and hers was given at birth by her human father. She has never taken it off.

Companion

Oritoshi

Oritoshi is Unilights pet unicorn. She keeps her company when she's lonely and sad. Unilight found her laying on a cloud when she was flying and has kept her ever since.

Home Planet: Uni-net

Uni-net is a magical place with clouds, rainbows, hills and unicorns. Although there is a dark side of it the unicorns hide in the clouds and their hills to avoid the dark hills.

Hometown: Coral Side

Coral side is the good part of Uni-net full of flowers and rainbows. Although the teenage Unicorns can be mean there.

Political Climate / History: Uni-net and Coral side are a peaceful and wonderful place with love and happiness, the dark side of Uni-net is the dark hills, no one dares to enter. There are many half human unicorns who get bullied a lot and feel left out, Unilight is one of them. The Unicorns are above the half human unicorns.

An Interview by Kaboo

Q: What is your favorite food to enjoy, unique to your planet?

A: I like to eat Bafooonies! They were made in Uni-net planet and have marshmallow filling covered with cotton candy outside, they're delicious!

Q: What is a unique talent you have?

A: A unique talent I have is the ability to make rainbows whenever I want, even when it's storming! I like to make them when it's sunny though, it looks gorgeous.

Q: If you had one wish, what would you wish for?

A: I would wish to turn fully human and not be half unicorn anymore. That's all I've ever wanted.

Chapter One: The first day

I was making a pb&j when all of a sudden my mom came in the kitchen and started talking to me.

"So Uni, you know school is starting, right?" she said.

"Yes mom, I know," I said. I knew school was starting but I've never wanted to go. You see, I'm half human unicorn. I have a fear I'll get bullied even worse since my neighbors already laugh at me a lot... I was lost in thought when all of a sudden my mom said this,

"Uni I signed you up to go to high school starting Monday," I froze. How could she do this to me?! I had such bad anxiety when getting made fun of! How could she!

"NO WAY MOM!! I AM NOT GOING!" I yelled.

"Yes you are Unilight, and don't you dare raise your voice at me!" she said. I was so angry and upset that I stormed off to my room. How could she!! After all I've went through, she expects me to go to school like nothing!!?? I knew she was gonna force me to go so I started to gather my clothes for the first day. If I was gonna go, I had to at least feel pretty.

Chapter Two: Lonely

I walk into the building at 7:50 am on a Monday morning. As soon as I walk in, all eyes are on me. I am so nervous I just put my head down and walk with my hair in my face. I can hear other unicorns laughing at me and I could feel my anxiety levels rising. I am shaking uncontrollably, but I find my class and sit down in the nearest seat I find. Even the teacher was staring me down. I hated being here. I wanted to go home. I was about to walk out when a unicorn talked to me.

"Are you lost? Haven't found your school or what, doofus?" she says laughing. I stare her down and look away. She walks away laughing at me with her unicorn friends.

"Hey didn't you hear her dummy?! Why are you still here weirdo, get out of our school and never come back!" said a random unicorn. I was so hurt but I just ignored them. A few minutes later the teacher gives me a piece of paper with math and writing on it. "What's this for?" I ask.

"Your homework. DO it yourself," replied the teacher. "But I don't know any of this!" I yelled back. I go home and try my best to finish it.

Chapter Three: Not so lonely

It's the second week of school and it hasn't gotten any better. I go to lunch and sit in a corner, when all of a sudden, I see a girl coming towards me, A GIRL!! I stare at her and she says something.

"Hey you're Unilight, right?" she asks.

"Yeah I am, and you are??" I reply.

"I heard you were half human, I am too! Btw I'm Windy, I want to be your friend!" she says. I was shocked, she was just like me and wanted to be my friend! For once in my life I had a friend, and who was just like me!

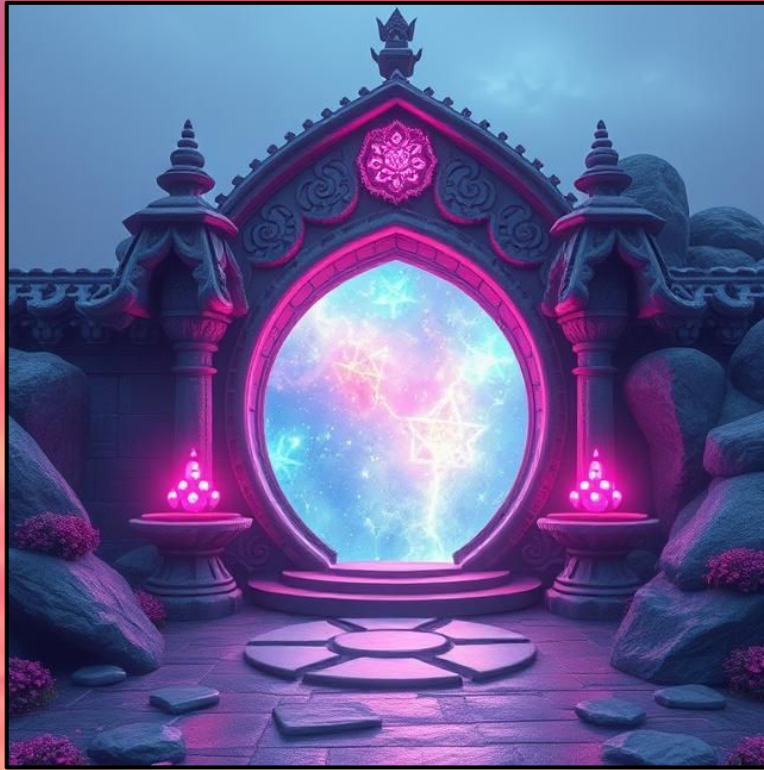

"Of course we can be friends! What do you like??" I reply

"I like bafoonies and books, I love to read about the human world and other things, what about you?" she said. I was so glad to hear her say that, I've always wanted to meet someone who had the same desires and imagination. I knew she was perfect to be my friend.

"I also love bafoonies!! I don't read but I like to listen to videos and podcasts about the human world!" I replied.

After that, we talked more and started to hangout more. We talked about the human world a lot.

Chapter Four: The portal

Me and my human unicorn friend, Windy, went on a hike to this mountain that's famous for being known to have a "portal". We didn't think that it was actually true but, we still kept going... We were walking for about an hour or two when Windy saw something..

"Unilight! I see a light glowing inside that cave, let's go inside!" she said.

"Windy I don't think that's a good idea there could be something in there.." I replied. We stayed still and thought about it for a bit. If we went inside, there could be a bear or even worse, a monster. I've always been afraid of the darkness and monsters, so thanks to Windy, we remembered to bring some flashlights and of course, bafoonies. We decided to go inside but only to see what there was. We wouldn't touch anything or go too deep inside... A few minutes of walking inside the cave, I saw what seemed to be like a button. Windy got curious and pressed it. A portal opened in front of our eyes, it was glowing bright yellow and it pulled Windy in, of course I jumped in to help her and it ended up sucking us both up, I blacked out after that.

Chapter Five: Getting lost

I wake up inside a dark cave with Windy next to me. I get scared and scream. Windy wakes up in a matter of seconds and asks if i'm okay while turning on a flashlight. I tell her I'm okay now that there's light and get up. I start to walk towards a light in the distance but I can't remember anything that happened.

"Windy do you remember how we got here?" I ask.

"No, I have no idea where we are..?" she replies. We keep walking into the cave and find an exit, we walk out of the cave and into a forest full of animals we have never seen before.

"Windy where are we?!" I ask.

"I don't know Unilight! I'm scared!" she replies. We walk and walk for so long it begins to get darker outside, we finally come across a place full of houses and go into the backyard of one. I go to ask Windy something and realize she's not with me.

"WINDY!?? WINDY WHERE ARE YOU?! WINDY!!!" I yell. I begin to panic. Windy is my best friend and is lost somewhere we both don't recognize or know about.

Chapter Five: Getting lost

It seems like someone heard me screaming Windy's name because a girl came out of the house and into the backyard. I quickly run and hide inside a bush, then she says....

"Hey, it's okay you can come out I won't hurt you." I come out from the bush and realize it's a girl, she tells me her name is Robin and has been studying about unicorns.

"I-I-I'm Unilight.. A-a-a-are you gonna hurt m-m-me..?" I say.

"No, I could never hurt anyone. I'm not that kind of person, to ever lay hands on someone like that. Well, I'm Robin by the way," she replies.

"O-okay... I'm trusting you, I lost my friend , Windy. She's also a unicorn that looks like a human. Could you help me find her?" I ask.

"Of course! Would you be able to describe her to me?" she replies, ready to listen.

"She has brown hair and green eyes." I say. We walk around the forest for a while and eventually come across a cave. We go inside and find Windy hiding. Windy tells us she's safe and found a place full of books, so she takes us to it.

Chapter Six: Returning by force

After almost a week of being here hiding in Robins' basement, it's starting to get tiring. We have been getting books from the library to try and figure out how we can go back. Windy and I don't want to leave but we also can't stay, we "HAVE to go back", is what Robin keeps saying. I've tried to stay positive by convincing myself that my mom and the school is looking for me and Windy. Although it's hard to stay positive when the whole school hates you and your unicorn mother never has time for you, ever.

"Hey I think I found something!" Robin says.

"What is it!!!" Me and Windy reply.

"This book talks about a portal in a cave that we can find 2 miles away!" Robin says excited. My stomach drops and I get upset because I don't want to leave. Me, Windy and Robin have bonded so much over this past week having to leave was like a punch in the gut. Even though I didn't want to leave, Windy did, so I had no choice but to go with her. I can't leave her but I don't want to leave Robin either. But I have to go for school and my Unicorn mother,

Chapter Six: Returning by force

We leave early in the morning on a warm windy Saturday. We are on our way to the Cave Portal when Robin starts to open up.

"You know, I've never really had friends..." Robin says

"Really?! Neither have I! Unilight is my only ever friend!" Windy replies.

"Neither have I, You are both my only friends I've ever had and will have." I reply. We keep walking. Robin and Windy are talking, which gives me time to think and stay to myself. Why did I have to be a Unicorn Human? Why couldn't I just be normal? I feel devastated and my eyes start to water, when Windy begins to jump in excitement saying we found the cave. We go in and find the switch to the portal. I don't want to pull it so Windy does. I hug Robin one last time and say my goodbye, I tell her I'll come back for her and so does Windy. The portal lights up and opens up. It begins sucking up Windy then me, Robin left right on time for the portal to close up before it took her. And a few moments later we we're back... Uni-net planet surrounded by Unicorns in the distance...
