Inventory

火 (Sword)

Ichihaya's sword is very good for slicing, dicing, and crushing any enemies there could potentially be on his way

Spring Shoes

The spring shoes give anybody who finds them and uses them +10 jump boost. Very good for mountain scaling and just jumping

Magic Pot

Good for cooking. When you pull out the magic pot it starts cooking whatever the first food that comes to mind is. Be hungry no more!

Companion

Floating Fluff

Floating Fluff came to be when Ichihaya had a dream where he was riding a floating fluff through the night sky. Ichihaya then went to the magical wizard of the gloomy cave and eventually the wizard crafted floating fluff.

Home Planet: Warriori

Warrior is home to the best fighters in the whole entire universe. It also holds the home of the next best fighter in all of Warriori Ichihaya Kyotaro. The population is only 61 million fighter people.

Hometown: Hidden Jutsu Village

Hidden Jutsu village is the strongest village in all of Warriori home to just about all the latest and greatest fighter warriors in all of Warriori. The population of Hidden jutsu village is 80 million people that come to train and get potential

Political Climate / History: The vibe of this planet is pretty chill with intensity when it comes to training. The history of this planet goes back to the early 2500B.C. when the greatest warrior fighter in all of Warriori came and declared the very large chunk of land to be his and all of his people and family members came to live in peace for all the years to come.

An Interview by Jeff

Q: How did you get your sword

A: There was a wizard in the dark swamp at the end of the planet, who gives weapons to who he thinks are gonna be the next best warrior. Then I asked him to craft me my fire sword, then two to three business days later he appeared in my village and gave me my sword.

Q: Who are all the villains you beat.

A: Lets see um the wizard of the dark swamps brother, evil dragon guy the had a body of a man and the head of a dragon. And right now I think that's about it.

Q: What's your favorite sport.

A: Well in my planet we don't have any sports. But I like watching human sports and my favorite to watch is Basketball.

Room 3: Kitchen Of Food

The kitchen of food is the place that Ichihaya cooks his master food collaborations like cinnamon rice balls and pork ramen

Chapter One: Coffee and Thoughts

It's 5:00 in the morning and our main character is in a coffee shop drinking coffee and thinking about what the day will bring for him.

Chapter Two: NO TRAINING!

The grand fighter warrior announces that this is the 5th year which means that no soul in the whole planet of warriori will be able to train for the whole year.

Chapter Three: Farming and grocery speed run

Because Ichihaya can't train he is spending his time helping farmers deliver groceries all over town and he is doing some framing of his own.

Chapter Four: The slump

Ichihaya not being able to train is forcing him into a slump and he is just sitting on his couch drinking tea and slouching hoping that no training year will end early.

Chapter Five: THE BIG FIGHT

Ichihaya fights his biggest rival in the final chapter. He believes he has trained enough and is ready to destroy all enemies that come his way.

Chapter Six: Aftermath

Ichihaya kicks off the new year with starting in his gym and then starting to train in the arts of taijutsu and ninjutsu and learning how to hone his powers

Chapter One: Coffee and thoughts

My name is Ichihaya Kiyotaro and right now I am in a coffee shop at 5:00 in the morning because the barista comes in early so I can be here early. Besides my house this coffee shop is one of my favorite places on all of warriori because it's quiet and it gives me time to think about what I am going to do during the day. My favorite thing to get at the coffee shop is a iced caramel macchiato with a ham and cheese warm sandwich. Hmm... I wonder what today will bring...

By the way I forgot to tell you a little bit about myself, I live on the planet warrior which is Trillions and Trillions of years away from earth and in my village named Hidden Jutsu Village I am known for being the most trained villager in all of Hidden Jutsu village. I live in a 5 story house with lots of different rooms for my various needs. I have black hair and I wear a blue Gi I received from my grandfather and I have a cool fire sword. I also love pork ramen and rice balls.

Chapter Two: NO TRAINING!

Right now I am sitting at home watching a Mackie Bran movie trying to see his techniques so I can steal them for myself to be even better at fighting than I already am. I am just about 3 minutes into the movie now but I have to change the channel because the grand fighter warrior is coming on Tv to give his big announcement. The whole announcement sounded something like this: Attention all people in Warriori, I am Grand fighter warrior Kaizo, and I am here to tell you that It is the 5th year in the warriori calendar which means for all you people out there training right now, It's time to put down the weights and put up the vegetables because this is NO TRAINING YEAR.

I repeat this is NO TRAINING YEAR so if you are caught training it's an automatic 1 year in jail! Now back to your usual programming.

Dang! No training for a whole year?! What am I supposed to do now?! If I can't train then how am supposed to be strong for next year's tournament of champions? What I think I should do now is probably become a farmer and plant some crops. Wait I know what I can do to pass the time... HEH HEH HEH.....

Chapter Three: Farming and grocery speed run

So because I can't train I am Farming and working for different grocers so I can make some money while we are on no training year. While I can't train my body to be ready I can train my speed so while I am delivering groceries I am also testing my speed to see how fast I can deliver packages of food all over hidden Jutsu village. I am really not fast because every day I finish delivering packages at 5:00 at night even though I start delivering at 6:00 in the morning so I need to start getting my stamina up somehow that's not cheating the no training system.

Also my life at home isn't getting any better either it's just been a lot of eating and watching tv even though what I want to do is train to get better and what's more every day that I watch tv there's some advertisement about the tournament next year. Talk about irony! I think I'm really starting to get fed up with everyday because it's the same thing from day to day work, eat, sleep, binge shows, repeat. I just wish something or someone would come to make my life a little more interesting.

Chapter Four: The slump

What I am now doing is being lazy and just eating. TV is getting really boring and everyday is starting to be just like the rest. I am really getting mad because all I have to do everyday is deliver groceries and that's really getting boring. "Hello there" whose voice was that and how did they get in my house

" who's here and how are you in my house?"

"My name is floating fluff and I am here to make your day a whole lot better" said the fluff

"How do you think you are going to do that? No one can get me out of this slump"

"Oh don't worry I know just what you need. Just follow me!" the fluff said happily floating away. I wonder what the floating fluff has in mind for me as I am bummed out and kind of intrigued in a way. The floating fluff has set up a whole cloud trail outside of my house and I don't know what it is for seeing as I can't train but this doesn't look like training. "Your objective for today... Is to try and catch me !" screamed the floating fluff and with that he zoomed away faster than I could say rice pilaf. I don't know if anyone was keeping track but for me to

I don't know if anyone was keeping track but for me to catch that floating fluff it took me 48 hours and 47 minutes to complete because of how fast the fluff was.

Chapter Five: THE BIG FIGHT

So a year has passed and finally I can train again. I've been training for the past nine months and today is the day for the fight . I am pretty sure I am ready because the floating fluff helped me work on things that helped to ensure easy success. I scan the flyer looking for my name and I am the last fight in the first round of the tournament. The first round went by swimmingly and I found myself advancing to the finals. When my name was called I stepped up to the mat. The opponent I was facing was a red monster from the planet apleas. He was about 6'7 and he looked like he could kill me in one blow. Once the referee blew the whistle I tried a punch but it didn't work because he used his massive palms to block my punch. In this moment I really wanted to curse but cursing is forbidden in warriori. The big red came rushing at me with all his might and I remembered all the speed training I did and when he came up to my neck I moved as fast as a blur and got him confused this was my time to make my move, I quickly took my fire sword out of its sheath that rests on my belt and hit the red monster with a combo move that left him hungary for more.

Chapter Five: THE BIG FIGHT

Because he wanted more I pulled out my magic pot. My magic pot will make anything that comes to your mind when you think of food. When I took the pot out I saw that the magic pot was making a roasted chicken when the chicken was done I gave it to the monster for bait. He ate the chicken and went to sleep right away which means... I won! Everyone in the stands was screaming their heads off as I the newest grand fighter warrior of warrior basked in the sunlight appreciating the fans and thinking about all the struggles I went through to get where I was today. After the fight they wanted to make a speech so I went too the podium and thanked everyone for coming and giving me this opportunity to be apart of this great tournament and for supporting me. I also thanked the farmers that let me work with them.

Chapter Six: AFTERMATH

After the match I got my winnings of 54.8 trillion dollars and I knew just what I wanted to do with the winnings when they got handed to me: I was going to buy myself a house in warrior paradise. My house is going to have everything that I can salvage from my old house. Some new features for my new house will include: A built in pool for when I need to cool off, a whole new training room for even more intense training, a new gaming room for more cool gaming, a even better magic kitchen that will just know exactly what I want to eat before I even get to the kitchen and it will make it. Also I wanted to make sure I got the Floating Fluff some stuff for just being there when I was in a slump. What I got the Floating Fluff was his own house with everything I had plus the stuff that he wanted for his house. And that basically brings us to the present. Now that you're educated on everything else that's happened let me tell you the stuff that's been happening now. I don't really see the Floating Fluff anymore because he moved to a new home on the far side of warriori, but now I have a girlfriend and I have educated her in the art of ninjutsu. So yeah that's everything all have for now but don't worry I will be back soon! SEE YAH!!
