Kill parents

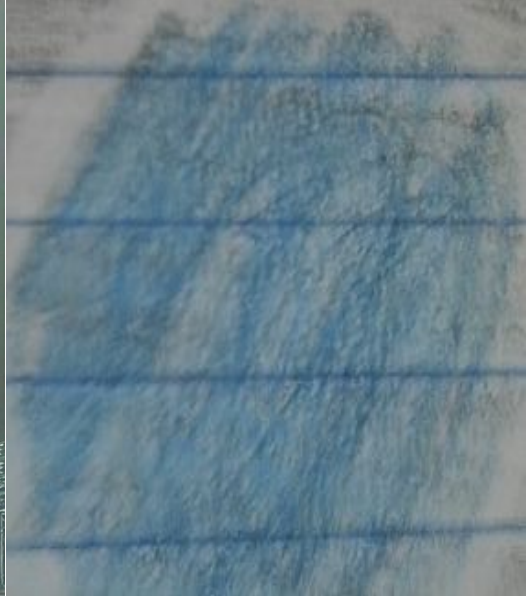

Fear(s)

Unknown

Backstory: In the year 10232, I was born. My parents abandoned me after I was born because I had 3 eyes. When I was 8, someone tried to kill me, that's when I learned that our world is kill or be killed. So naturally, I killed them, that's also when I learned that I could teleport. So now I'm a bounty hunter.

Earth-84

Lociton

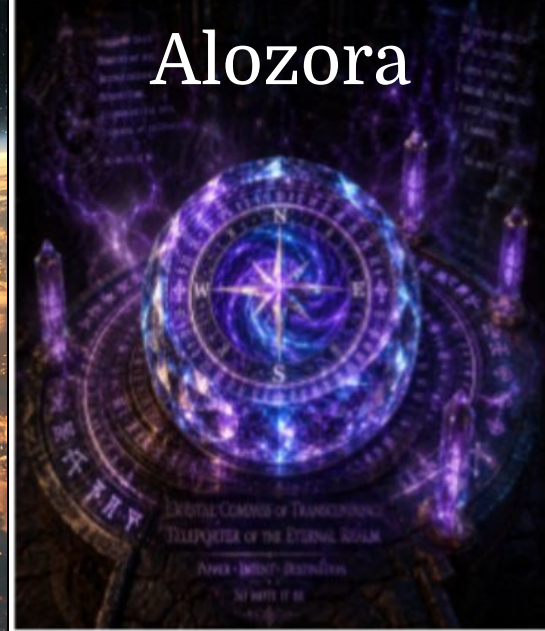

Luretic

Coordinates (x, y)	(5,000, 14,000)	Government Type	Anarchy
Population	1.4 billion	Intergalactic Disposition	Only lets them in if they have something of use or wants to do people's work.
Terrain	Murky and almost undrinkable water, Wasteland.	Primary Race(s)	Humans
Climate	Dust in the air all the time.	Primary Resource/ Technology	Lociton (Lo-ic-tun) Powerful gas used for making weapons that are capable of mass destruction. When the rich found this powerful element, they switched what we gave to the rest of the universe. They sent our world on a downward spiral and now the rest of the universe hates us.
Size	1.0	Description	Was once the best resort planet in the universe until Lociton was discovered. After that everything went to hell and the rich left while the poor stayed. Fast Forward a few thousand years, and things are worse. There is no government and angles have taken our Sun away. Bounty hunting can get you a lot of money if your good enough, especially if you get bounties from people like gun dealers, and the News Man. The News man's the most powerful guy on this planet, after all he always tells the truth. Gun dealers are the second most powerful people here. But if you tried to kill any of them, you'd die immediately. Same with the News Man.
Planetary Wildlife	Luretic (Lure-t-I-c) It's an organism made from one's hatred. It can enter your bloodstream and take control of your body. It would be hard to deal with but they're weak against Lociton.

Multiversal Calamity

Alozora

Crystal compass and teleporter

Eclipse
Dominian

Ultimate Orb

Origin Story:

When TJ met the King, they didn't get along, but after some time, they decided to make a weapon together. They permanently borrowed some powerful items to make this. So with the Ultimate Orb and a Crystal Compass, along with the King's power, they made the god weapon known as the Multiversal Calamity.

Appearance:

Looks like a satellite but bigger, is black with gold highlights and a laser point on the end.

● Aura of death

Unless you are allowed on you'll instantly die if you go near it. But if you're allowed in, you can without the worry of dying immediately.

◆ GOD RAY

A powerful blast using power of both the Ultimate Orb and the King, it can disintegrate anything in the path of the ray. And anything near the god ray will die as well, as it also has a aura of death.

★ Summon the Ender

By using the Crystal Compass, it will summon the King's true form. The king's true form is bigger than the universe and it will destroy everything. He also has a aura of death

How we Met

I found him when I was tasked with killing one of his subjects. When he saw me, he forced me to come with him. Now we are good friends. He has only shown me two of his near Infinite powers.

Ability #1: Death wish

He seems to be able to give people a 'death wish' that causes the being to die in a way that The King choses. This is how he killed that subject that I was supposed to kill.

Ability #2: Omniscience

He knows EVERYTHING all at once. He once used this to gaslight someone into thinking that their house is a mimic by saying that, because he has omniscience, he knows that the guy's house is a mimic.

Chapter one: The beginning

Today started like any other day, although when I looked to my right, that adventure log I had made in my dream was on my half-broken nightstand. Huh, didn't expect that to be there. Nevertheless, I still had work to do. Oh, I suppose I should introduce myself. You can call me TJ, I'm a 14-year-old kid. But I'm not human like everyone else on this planet. So now that I've introduced myself, I can tell you what I do for a liv- KaBOOM! Ugh, seems that people are fighting outside my apartment again. Eh, just another day on the planet where the sun don't shine. Then I remembered that Gunton wanted to meet me today. (See, Gunton is one of the 'Gun Dealers'. They, along with the News Man, are the people that you don't want to kill. It's an unwritten rule that you're not supposed to kill them. But if a Gun Dealer tries to kill the News Man, only then are you allowed to kill them.) So I hurriedly got out of bed, got changed, grabbed both my K-20 energy rifle and my B-12 armor penetrator, and teleported to Gunton as quickly as I could.

"Sorry I'm late."

"Took you long enough!" He said impatiently. "I mean, how did Jonathin get here faster than the guy that can teleport!"

"Well, there was a fight happening outside my home."

Gunton looked at me to see if I was lying. "Fine, just don't be late again."

"Alright." Good, I still have a shot at the high bounty.

"So, Jonathin, TJ... DRAW!" Jonathin, hearing this, tried to shoot me with his C-9 blaster pistol.

"What th-" At that moment, I teleported behind him (no one else on this planet can teleport, like at all), broke his leg, then grabbed his C-9 to finish the job; he now has a nice hole in his skull.

"Impressive! But you'll need to do more to-"

"If you're just trying to test me, then I'll be on my way." I turned to leave.

"Wait! ok, ok, fine, if you can kill Yusina-"

"The News Man! You're insane!"

"What do you mean? I'm not asking to mu-" Vmm, he's a fool for thinking that someone would kill Yusinan. Then I see them, Luretics, hundreds of them. I then just threw a K-4 bomb at them. Boom, and there they all go. I then decided to tell Yusinan. You might be wondering, why wouldn't I kill Yusinan? Well, he's the most powerful and most trustworthy (I know, crazy coming from my world) person on this planet. He tells the news and somehow never lies while doing so. He also has hundreds of bodyguards in his tower. So I teleported to him to save myself the trouble of needing to go through all of his bodyguards.

Chapter one: The beginning

He was sitting in a chair, looking at our city, the City of the Forgotten.

"Hey."

"And who are you?"

"I'm just here to tell you that a guy named Gunton tried to put a bounty on your head."

"Hmmm... Interesting, did he try to-" He then turned to look at me, and saw my three glowing light blue eyes, and my inky black skin.

"Something the matter?"

"Sorry, I didn't know that you weren't human."

"..."

"But I must thank you. Not every day that someone like you comes to see me."

"..."

"Are you the only one in your species?"

"You could say that."

"Hmm... tell you what, you seem skilled enough." He then pulls out a paper from his drawer. "If you can kill him, then I'll make it worth your while." I took the paper from him.

"Can't you do this yourself?"

"Yes, but why would I do that when I've got something new to share with everyone?" I then took a look at the paper, 'Inado'. Huh, weird name. "Parently, he's from a different universe."

"Pardon?"

"Ha, yeah, you heard me right." I looked back at the paper, half his face was made out of pure gold.

"I can do it."

"Good. And, I'll give you an H-84 for this." (Just so you know, that's the best weapon anyone can get today.) And with that, I teleported away to collect the bounty.

Chapter two: An interesting meeting.

And so I was off, off to get the best weapon in the world. It seemed simple to find him (after all, he was half made out of gold), so I went to someone who could help me out. Elixz, my sister. Elixz lost both her legs in a car crash, then her parents abandoned her. She barely survived... now she has 6 spider-like titanium legs, very useful for climbing buildings or jumping high. As I said, she's my sister, and somehow she's also human, unlike me. We both think our mom was human and our dad wasn't. She is also very strong, fast, and technologically gifted. Although a few days after the car crash, she had gotten her voice box taken out. Thankfully, she made herself a new one, but she has never been able to talk normally ever since.

"Hey sis."

"H1! Wh3re h@ve y0u b3en? I've b3en wa1tin9 f0r y0u f0r @ wh1le n0w!" She said with enthusiasm while coming up towards me.

"Heh, sorry I've been busy with my bounty hunting job."

"Y0u kn0w y0u c@n slay w1th m3, ri9ht? Y0u d0n't n3ed t0 t@ke 0n a1l 0f th3se ch@llen9es 6y y0urs3lf."

"Well, it's the best shot we have at finding our parents," I say, like I want to let them live.

".*. Y0u d0n't n3ed t0 a(t l1ke y0u w@nt th3m t0 1ive," she said in a sad-ish tone.

"Well you don't like that I hate them, but you should too. I mean, all they did for us was leave us to die. They didn't show us care, so why should we show them care?"

".!" She looked like she was going to cry.

"... look, I just stopped by to see if you could help me find someone," I say, trying to change the subject.

"Oh, wh0?" She said in a sad-ish, curious tone.

"Him," I say, showing her the picture.

"Oh! Th3y st0pp3d 1n h3re @ f3w m1nutes a9o."

"Did they say where they were heading?"

"Ye@h, th3y sa1d th3y w3re g0ing w3st."

"Thanks," I'm about to head off, then,

Chapter two: An interesting meeting.

"H3y, br0?"

"Yeah, sis?"

"1f 0r wh3n w3 f1nd 0ur p@ren!s, 9ust p1e@se d0n't k1ll th3m 1mm3diate1y."

"Fine"

"Th@nk$."

I kept going west until I saw him. He was talking to another person who was wearing a black hoodie with gold lines and a gold crown hovering over his head.

"So," the guy with the crown said while keeping a calm, yet serious tone, "you think I would let you live after what you did?"

"I was just going to-"

"No, you betrayed us all. Do you know what you did?"

"I was just helping you to become stronger, sir." He said, bowing down.

"Get up, I don't need to become stronger, we both know that."

"But sir-"

"No, I don't want to hear it. I kept you alive, and this is how you repay me? By making it so that I need to clean up the mess you've made? ... Your sentence is death." And with that, he disintegrated him. "Ugh, now I have to deal with this mess."

"What mess?" I say wanting answers.

"Were you watching us the whole time?"

"Yes."

"Well, then you get to help me."

"No."

"Too bad, you were watching, so now you help."

"And if I still refuse?"

"I kill your parents."

"Good, do it."

"... Then I kill whoever you love most in the longest and most agonizing way."

"Fine. But where are we going?"

"A different universe, now, just meet me back here by the end of the day, or I'll just go get you myself. K'?"

"Fine, I'll be back." I then teleported away to see my sister before I depart to this 'new universe'.

Chapter two: An interesting meeting.

"Hi again."

"H1! D1d y0u f1nd th3m?"

"Yeah, but someone else killed them before I could."

"W3ll d1d y0u k1ll th@t 9uy?"

"No, he is forcing me to go to a different universe."

"W@t?"

"Yeah, I don't fully know either."

"C@n 1 c0me?"

"Hm?"

"C@n 1 c0me?"

"I mean, maybe?"

"Ok! 1'll b3 r3ady s0on!"

"..." She then started to get her things to go.

A few hours go by till she's ready.

"R3ad^!"

"Alright." I take her hand and teleport to where the guy was.

"Oh, took you long enough- who's she?" He says, pointing at my sister.

"She's my sister."

"C@n 1 c0me?"

"... I guess," he said. I blink, then we're already in a strange place.

Chapter three: A new place

"And we're here," he said with calm enthusiasm.

"W0w th1s pl@ce 1s c0ol!"

"Huh," I must admit, this place does look cool.

"You guys can find yourselves a place to sleep."

"Ok! C0m'm0n br0, l3t's 90 f1nd @ pla(e t0 sl3ep!" She then grabbed my arm and brought me with her.

"W3 c@n sl3ep h3r3!"

"Do you-... how'd you find where the beds are?"

"I ju$t kn0w wh3re t0 l0ok."

"...Huh, ok."

";) W3ll, l3t's g0 t0 b3d."

"..." She finally let go of my arm, got into bed, and went to sleep. I followed shortly after.

".. -.-. - / -.. ----- / -.- ----- .. / .- -.-. -.-. - / - ----- / -.. ----- ..-.."

"When did you learn Morse code?"

"Ok!!" I then took her arm and teleported to that guy. "H3Y WH@TS YOUR N@aa@aaaa@@aaaaM3?"

"Well, good morning, I see you slept well."

"What's your name? We both want to know."

"You can call me 'The King'."

"Y?"

"Cause I don't have a real name."

"Ok," we talked for a while about random stuff, it's the kind of stuff you'd forget about the next day.

"So," The King said, "I need you guys to start doing your jobs."

"And what are they?"

"Just go to different planets and do different stuff on said planets, 'k?"

"-.-. -.-."

[illegible]

“----- / -.-. --- / .. / -.-. --- / --- / - --- / ...-. .-.-. /-. --- / .-. .-

“Ok then.”

"You," he said, pointing at my sister. "You can go to the planet Marp to see if there's anything useful there. And you," he said, pointing at me. "You get to go to Eclipse Dominion to steal an Ultimate Orb."

"Fine by me."

"M3 T00!"

"Alrighty then, go do what I told you!"

Chapter four: filler fight

Again, when I blinked, I was teleported to a different place. Oh well, guess I got to do this. I just kept teleporting around till I found someone important, and when I did, I killed him. But while I was killing him, some guards tried to attack me. During the fight, one of them landed a good hit on me, causing me to drop my K-20.

“Ugh!” This was not good. If I died, then my sister would be alone with The King. I didn’t want to know what he would do to her if I died. Kill her? Make her his slave? I didn’t know, but I won’t die here. And at that moment, my body began to adapt. Tendrils began to come through my back, skewering the people who were trying to kill me.

When they died, the tendrils went back in. When I felt the back of my coat, I found no holes.

“Huh,” I went to get the guy that I had attacked previously, but then I saw something. It was a strange gold orb, and when I got near it, I felt an immense amount of power. I killed the guy, then took the orb back with me.

“I’m back.”

“Huh, how’d you get back up here?”

“I can teleport to places I’ve seen before.”

“Cool. Say, why do you and your sister look different? I mean, she’s human, but you’re not, how?”

“Your guess is as good as mine.”

“Ok, did you find something useful?”

“Yeah, I think so.”

“Good, let me see it.” I then pulled out the orb. “Wow, I haven’t seen one of those in a while. Good job,” he then took the orb from me and teleported away. And I was left there speechless.

Chapter five: A new face

I was still waiting for my sister to come back when I thought back to when I was fighting those guards. How did I do that? How did I make those tendrils? I was pondering this when my sister came back.

"H1! 1 g0t th1s co0l r06ot!" She was holding the hand of a small robot that was holding a weird-looking drill. "H3's m1ne n0wwwWww!"

"And how'd you get him?"

"1 F0nd h1m! N0w, wh3re's th3 K1ng?!" She seemed to have a lot of energy.

"I don't know," the robot didn't seem all too scared. "Can it talk?"

"Why yes, can't you hear me now?"

"Ok then," I didn't know why my sister brought back a clanker, but she did.

"Welcom- what's that?" Said The King, pointing at the robot, confused about why my sister brought it here.

"@ r0bot!"

"... Ok then, I guess it could be useful... So, bot, how can you help us build a god weapon?"

"Computing, Computing, may I ask what the weapon is for?"

"YES"

"... Is it for the good of the universe. That is my sole intention. To help Dreamvale."

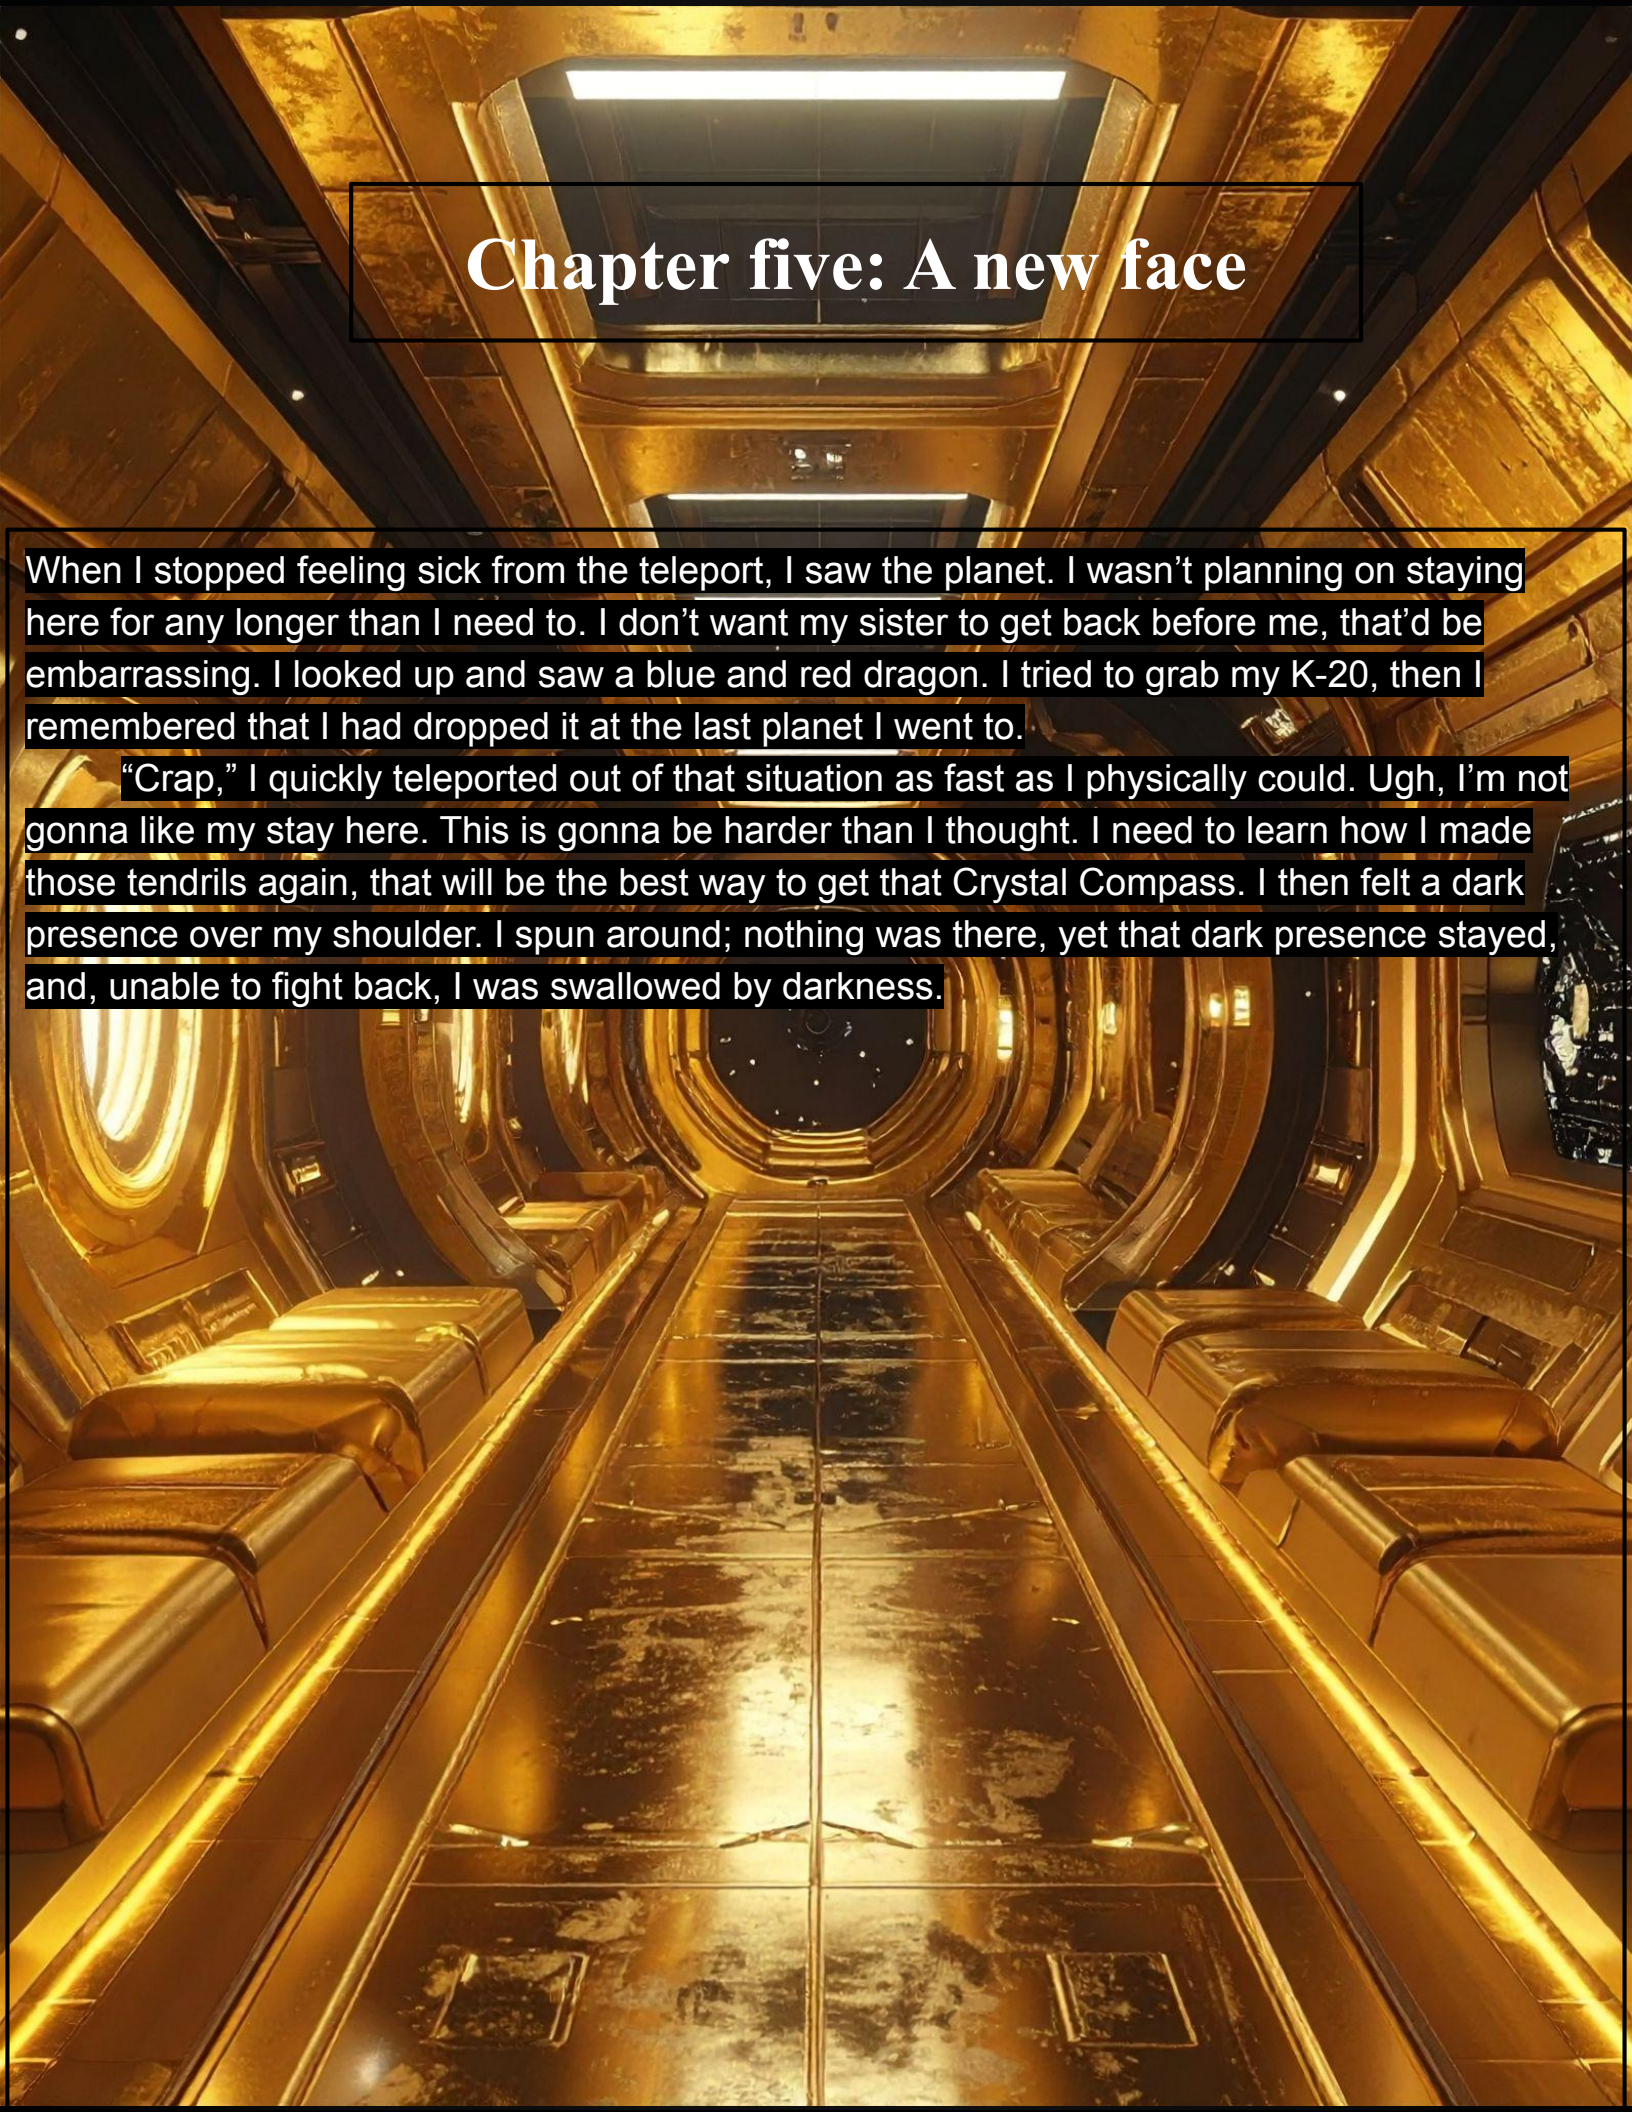

"... IDK, I just want the god weapon. :)"

"And if you want my help, I need a promise that it is for the good of the people. Otherwise, I'll be taking my leave. There's plenty of scrap needing my attention."

"..." The King looked like he was thinking about something he regretted. "... Fine, I can promise you that it will be used to help at least one, maybe two universes."

"The Dreamvale Universe is all that I know. If you can ensure its protection, then I will aid you."

"It will be done then..."

Chapter five: A new face

When I stopped feeling sick from the teleport, I saw the planet. I wasn't planning on staying here for any longer than I need to. I don't want my sister to get back before me, that'd be embarrassing. I looked up and saw a blue and red dragon. I tried to grab my K-20, then I remembered that I had dropped it at the last planet I went to.

"Crap," I quickly teleported out of that situation as fast as I physically could. Ugh, I'm not gonna like my stay here. This is gonna be harder than I thought. I need to learn how I made those tendrils again, that will be the best way to get that Crystal Compass. I then felt a dark presence over my shoulder. I spun around; nothing was there, yet that dark presence stayed, and, unable to fight back, I was swallowed by darkness.

Chapter six: Darkness

Within this, darkness, I felt nothing but FEAR. I couldn't move, couldn't breathe as I watched what was happening in front of me, my sister, being mauled by some unworldly being, and I couldn't save her from this outcome. I then realised, the monster that's eating her, it's me. I was eating her with no remorse. I remembered, that's why I've kept myself so distant from her, I wasn't scared that The King would kill her, I was scared that I would kill her.

"It doesn't need to be this way. You can go beyond what your parents made you to do. You can change." Huh, I don't know where that voice came from.

"Who are you?" I managed to say, even though I could barely speak.

"Follow the light and make amends with yourself." I had to force my body to turn around so that I could see the streak of light. I tried to follow it, but my body forced me to stay and watch my sister's death.

"It's not real, you didn't do this, and you never will; you just have to trust yourself." I don't trust myself, and I don't think I ever can, no matter what. "Just calm down, don't get so worked up, look at yourself, this is only hurting you, not her." The voice is right. I take a deep breath and try to follow the light. And I actually could; it was still hard to walk, yes, but I could.

It took a bit, but I saw the end of the streak of light, and at the end was a kid who was made of light.

"You made it, good."

"How do I do it? How do I change?"

"It's not always easy to follow your heart, but it can be done. You just need to let others in more; you've always pushed them away, so try to let them in. :)"

"... I guess you're right, thanks, what's your name?"

"The Dreamer."

"Thanks, Dreamer."

"I'll see you another time, TJ."

Chapter seven: final

“There you are, it’s been an hour, where have you been?” The King was confused.

“... I’d rather not say.”

“H@ h0wed w3 g3t h3re b3f0re y0u?”

“A nightmare.”

“Well, there has been a weird nightmare thing going around the universe. Now just give Millton the Crystal Compass, and we can start this.” I teleport to Millton, give him the Crystal Compass, then get ready for this thing to activate.

When Millton finished, the King let him leave. “Well, you two ready?” The King said.

“Y3s!”

“Yeah.”

“Alrighty then, let's test this out, then we can protect this universe from the nightmare.”

THE END
