Telecryst

Sliva

Teleportation Poles

Amyst

Magic Crystals

Origin Story: This weapon called the Telecryst and its named is called this because of what's it's made of and its a bow. I created it with magic crystal and teleportation poles which can help with it's magic and teleport. The anti-magic I already have with my weapon before I made the bow.

Appearance: Its magical on the outside with purple and green mixed. There is crystal's on the top and bottom of he handles and anti-magic on the rest. It's shape is a shape of a bow. The teleportation things are the arrows and can help me with my assassin kills.

● Crystal Arrows

Crystal arrows has crystal sharp ends which can break through weak barriers. This also can regenerate the crystal's that has been destroyed on it.

◆ Shadow Stealth

The shadow stealth, Shadow sleath is where I can go into the shadows, shoot and arrow at an enemy and is already there before they know it. I can also kill 2-3 at a time before they realize it.

★ Anti-Magic Assassin Form (AMAF)

Anti-magic assassin form (AMAF). AMAF is where I have anti-magic all over my body and it almost unstoppable. It can stop magic powers coming towards me/ deflect it back to that person.

Ow'eko (Aka Plansin)

Age: Unknown

Species: Wizard Creation

Gender: Male

Home Planet: Middle Earth

How we Met

We met on the planet Sliva, I was coming back to get my bag, when I saw it gone. I instantly went to assassin mode, thinking someone was there, I saw my bag move. I went to go check it out, When I looked behind my bag I saw him. I thought he must have fell to, because Sliva is most water and he was a tree mini thing.

Ability #1: Forest Clone minis

He can create up to 3-5 clones of himself to help him during his fights. Can also help make the enemy confused which is the real Plansin.

Ability #2: Tree Magic

The tree magic can help heal me whenever I am in danger or like hurt. Use the forest to guide us on our journey and can use its roots to attack.

Chapter One: Lanthirion

"My name is Lanthirion and welcome to middle earth, life is peaceful, but then once the ocrs attack that's when it's not peaceful, I always dreamed about being the best assassin."

"My Father and Mother are the king and queen of this kingdom, but I didn't seem to care. For me I was interested in assassins, so I kept learning about assassins in the library in the castle, it was so fantastic. But when I kept asking my parents,

"Can I become the best assassin?"

They would always ignore me because of this boy named Moon, he was the best knight here or I don't know. I really never paid any attention to them at all, I was really focused on learning about assassins. But, today I wanted to become an assassin and be the best, so I started to grab things that an assassin would have and hunted down bad people. Really, I kept training so much to the point I always had cuts, or bruises when I came back to the castle. My parents didn't really care, they were more focused on Moon. Every time I thought I was better, Moon would always be one step ahead of me. After a few weeks I started to realize that my parents didn't really pay any attention to me, I only saw them whenever we were having dinner. That's when after dinner I headed out to go get some robbers, but when I came out I saw somebody in the distance, running. I decided to chase that person, but he/she was too fast for me, but eventually I managed to catch up with him/her.

When I said "Who were you?"

That person said "If it isn't the Son of the king and queen, Lanthirion",

Then I said "Huh?"

Then that person showed his face, when I saw who it was I got so scared I stood in place.

"M-moon?"

"What are you doing here?" I said.

"I had come to take some robbers to jail and I had come to take your job Lanthirion!"

"No your not,"

"Oh, your parents never told you why they keep their focus on me, right Lanthirion?" I'm the best assassin in the world."

Chapter One: Lanthirion

"Best assassin??" I said.

"Yeah,"

"You better run or you'll get it,"

but I refused. He said he was going to hit me, but I ran before he could get me and I decided I would leave. Once I got back to the castle I packed my things, and headed to the main gate, there I met the guards guarding the gate. I secretly took some of them out before opening the gate, and then I ran as far as I could. As I was running I decided to rest because I was tired. When I woke up it was morning time. I ate breakfast, then I packed all my things and started to walk there. When I was walking, I came across some creatures and I killed them before they knew it. Then I realized that I can get better weapons, and better as a beginner assassin, so I kept killing the creatures as I was walking to the border line. Before I knew it, it was nightfall already, man that so much fun killing them and getting better equipment from creatures. I wish that I had somebody to bring alongside me, so I wouldn't be so lonely.

"Alright let's settle here for the night," while talking to myself.

before I head to the border line. As I woke up, I started a fire because I was cold, then I grabbed some food from my bag. Once the food was ready I ate and poured out the fire. Then I headed to the Border line once again, but once I finally made it there I looked back and

I said "I'll be back in a few years or whenever," knowing that no one can hear it, I passed it.

I had entered a new world.

Chapter Two: The Adventure

When I had passed the border line, I had Entered A New World.

Once I passed it, I started my new journey to be the best assassin in the world. The first thing I did once I passed the border line was to find a place to call home. The second thing I did was find food sources, the third was to get materials, and the fourth was to be aware of this new world. Once I had found a place to call home for now, I settled here for the night. When I found a place, I had to use the rest of my food source. Afterwards, I finished my late dinner, but before I went to sleep I put some traps, noise makers around my camp just in case, then I went to sleep.

“Roars in the distance”

I woke up cold, shivering in my little blanket, I decided to go get some sticks, logs to heat up my fire. Once I brought the logs and things, I sat by the fire wondering what to do next. I had to go exploring first, then go somewhere next. Once I was ready to leave, I packed my things and decided, either West, South, North, or East, I decided to go west for some reason. I went west, and I was wondering what things I could see, do, or even get, while walking. After deciding what to do, after how many minutes, hours, I realized I was in a different area and I went straight to danger mode. I was slowly walking into the mysterious forest, not knowing what creatures it contains, or anything that lives in this forest. When I kept walking I came across a portal, I was wondering what this was, or why it was here, then suddenly I got pulled in.

“AHAHAHAH” I screamed

When I woke up, I was somewhere different, I was wondering where I was, then out of nowhere a giant eagle thing attacked me.

“Who are you?” as I was dodging for cover.

“Roar, as the creature comes at me”

But before the creature knows it,

“Slashes” as I came behind it.

“What was that?” as I ask myself.

“This thing can be used as a food source, and maybe upgrade my gear.” I said.

Chapter Two: The Adventure

As I took the giant eagle thing, I was wondering where to go, but I decided to go North and see where I would go from there. When I was Walking North, I heard more of those creatures, so I went North carefully. But after who knows how many hours I found something strange, So I put down the eagle thing and went to go see it. When I felt it, it felt weird, so I grabbed my bow and shot the thing with my normal arrow. My normal arrow did nothing against the thing so I was going to use my crystal arrow to break it, but then I sensed something coming towards me very fast. But at the last second I jumped before it could hit me, and saw what that thing was. Then I soon realize that, that the beast thing was the giant eagle thing, so I got prepared to kill it, before

“Boom” “Get’s knockout” as I fall from the sky

As I woke up, something was talking to me. I was not fully awake when I saw more of those giant eagle things. I was so nervous that I couldn’t focus on trying to find a way to escape from here. I didn’t know what they were saying, so I just didn’t say anything to them. Until somehow I could somehow hear them, I don’t know how but I just could understand them. I was just glad I was able to hear them, they were saying

“What should we do with him!!”

“LETS EAT HIM!!”

“No!, we don’t know if he is poisonous or not”

"Sir what should we do with him?"

“Put him in the cage” said the king,

“Yes Sir’

As they were putting me in the cage, I took one of the guards keys. When they put me in the cage, I wanted to escape, but I had to first learn about this area before I could escape.

Chapter Two: The Adventure

Once they brought me some food they called
"Fisark",

they called it that because they would get fish and then they would mix it with some shark dip or whatever. I never liked it, but eventually I learned about this place, so I had a plan to escape now. I just had to wait for the guard to bring me food, so my plan can work out,
"Dinner time" said the guards.

As one of the eagle things brought me my food,

"I had used my power to tame the eagle thing." As I was explaining my plan,

"When I had been in this cage, I found I could tame creatures, because when I put my hand up towards a little bird, it was under my control." Once I took control over the eagle thing, none of the others knew, so I made it take me out of the cage and hid me. When I was in the cage I built a clone that looked like me to look like I was there. Once I got out of the cage, I hid in the creature's pocket. I told it to go to the main gate and open it. Once we reached there, the gate opened and all the creatures were wondering why, then I came out of the creature's pocket and got my bow ready and then shot 4-5 arrows towards the creatures. Then the arrows reached the creatures while I made my escape, the arrows gave me a few seconds to run, before I knew it, the creature's caught up to me. But I kept running knowing if I stopped for a sec they would catch me, so I hid when I went behind a tree.

"Caw"

Chapter Two: The Adventure

They were trying to find me, but I doubt they would find me here. Then finally, they left after hours. I looked to see if it was clear to come out, and it was, but I still had to be careful. Once I got out fully I went in a random direction and saw if anything I could use/ have. When I found a place, I lit up a torch, then I was going to grab my bag, but I didn't feel it, then I realized that I probably dropped it while running. So then I decided to find it straight in the morning, so then I went to sleep in an area I found.

"Bushes move"

"Boom!" as I woke up fast.

When I woke up I saw my bag here somehow. I was wondering how, but I was still tired so I went to sleep.

"Morning comes"

As I woke up shivering as always, I went into my bag and searched for any source of food to eat. I kept searching till I found something to eat, I ate it, got ready, then started to head out. I went towards the sun, and I wanted to look for food, so I saw some meat on the floor, so I went towards it. When I went there, I went and tried to cut a little piece, but then

"I got stuck in a trap..."

"My foot got stuck on this rope."

"Now I'm upside down."

As I was trying to get myself down, that same voice came back again. As I untangled myself, When I got myself down I was falling into a portal.

I had fallen into a portal, not knowing what came next.

Chapter Three: My helper

As I was falling from the Portal, I saw lots of things in the portal. Once I was reaching the end, I got out of it, realizing I was falling from the sky. I was figuring out what to do, then I decided to use my shadow stealth. Once I reached the ground safely, I didn't know what this world was, so I went to explore to see what I was dealing with. When I was walking I heard creatures in the distance, I thought nothing of it because I was used to it. When I made it to a place, I saw something in the water,

"It looks like something I could use to build a stronger bow" as I picked it up.

Once I touched it, I had teleported to a different area, not realizing it, once I was walking I stumbled into water. Then I soon realized that I had gone to a whole different area without knowing it. I should grab a couple of these and see what I can build from this. Once I grabbed like 4 dozen of this, I went exploring even more. I wanted to improve Shadow stealth, so I grabbed things from my bag and built this random thing and started to use my shadow stealth on it. Once I did shadow stealth for twelve try's, I had started to figure out how to get better at this. Once I had figured out how to get better at this, I decided to rest for a bit before going to practice even more. When I went to my bag, I was so tired I needed something to drink. So I went into my bag and grabbed my last bit of water. I drank it so fast, I thought there was more. Once I put my drink down on the floor, I went to go train more.

"Going through the trees"

"whoosh, as I went pass it fast"

I started to realize that if I kept practicing like this I would eventually get a bit faster.

Chapter Three: My helper

"Shoots an arrows, towards the thing"

"whoosh"

I was there fast to kill it, and

I said "One more time"

As I was going through the trees I shot the arrow towards it, while I was waiting to be there, I noticed that I was in the same place. I was falling and then I hit the ground, thinking what happened. Once I got off the floor still thinking, while walking to my bag, I noticed that my bag was gone. I got straight to assassin mode, saying who's there, while being ready for any attacks. I heard a noise to the back of me, so I got my bow ready and then as I shot my arrow towards the enemy. But I missed and it hit the water, and I saw my bag moving. Once I went to check it out, I picked my bag up and pointed my bow at it. And when I saw the thing,

I went "Wha.."

"What is this thing?"

It was trying to talk to me, but I didn't understand what it was saying. Till, this voice came to me, and I remember hearing it somewhere, but I just couldn't remember where. Then, I remember where it was, at that eagle thing kingdom. I could understand what it was saying,

"Hello my name is Ow'eko, or you could call me Plansin."

He said he had been following me the day I came into the new world. No wonder I was hearing something behind me.

Chapter Three: My helper

He said "yeah.."

"I always had a dream to be the best ninja in the forest," said Plansin, but everyone in his kingdom always laughed at him. He had the same story as me, but a different dream, as I said it in my head.

He said "can I join your journey?"

I was thinking about it, then

I said "yes."

Then we sat thinking how to get back to our world, a portal appeared underneath us both we both knew it was coming, so we just went down the portal thinking it would take us back to our home planet. But as we were reaching near the end we both entered a new world, not knowing what is next. We were in a magical world. As we both came down, going to crash into a crystal when Plansin used his tree magic to hold off us, almost hitting the sharp crystal. As Plansin put both of us down with his magic, we both decided to find a spot to rest, then plan what to do the next day.

As we found a place to rest near a big crystal, we both sat and were on high alert just in case something came. We both told each other a few things about our sleeves, so we can learn about each other more. Once we got down, Plansin was tired so he went to sleep first, and I went to sleep after some time thinking when will we be able to go home. As morning came I was the first one to be awake, Plansin was still sleeping. I thought about going to get some crystals to bring just in case I needed it.

Chapter Three: My Helper

After gathering some crystals, I came back to Plansin, just waiting for me. We ate this thing that Plansin called leaf grains. It was leaves and some seeds mixed. I ate it because I had no food left to eat. Once we got done with eating, we set off to travel. After some time we sat, knowing that a portal was coming because when we were on that other planet Silva, when I had gotten some of the teleportation things, I went to sit and before I knew it I was sitting on a portal. I jumped in time, before it could catch me. 1 hour later, I'm tired as I was going to sleep, but then of course the portal came while I was tired. We fell in and just waited to see what was next. We were reaching the end, and once we fell and hit the ground I saw we were back.

We had come back to our world, not knowing there was someone behind us.

Chapter Four: My danger

As we fell through the portal, we had returned back to our world. Once we were back we were wondering where to go from here. As we were about to go in the direction of this bush, "Growls" we looked behind and saw a giant eagle thing, "Shadow Stealth" as I shot my arrow hitting the beast, and was onto the back of the beast. I was going to slash it, but it kept moving till Plansin used his tree magic to hold the beast down, then I had slashed it. When we finished off the beast, Plansin and I went off for our journey. We decided to rest at this spot. I asked Plansin if he wants to duel me so I can see what he can do. "I accepted," said Plansin. We went to our spots before we spar.

As I said "3, 2, 1 go", we both dashed towards each other, my crystal bow and his tree spear clashed together, and there was a small boom. Our weapons kept clashing together and then eventually we both got tired and stopped to rest. As we were resting, I saw something shining, and I went to go and see what it was. As I touched it, this strong thing came onto me, as I screamed in pain.

"AHAH"

Then Plansin came as quickly as he could and saw me on the floor in pain. He used his tree magic to try to heal me, but it didn't work. Plansin tired and tried to heal me with his magic, but it just wouldn't work, he didn't know what to do. Plansin kept thinking and thinking how to heal me, then he thought and decided to bring me to his kingdom and see if they could do anything to me. He built a bed thing fast and then he put me there,

Chapter Four: My danger

I "moaned in pain"

trying to see what's happening. About a few minutes later, I heard strange voices, and when I saw what was happening, it was that Plansin brought me to a place. Then I knocked out cold, when I woke up I was on a tree stump bed. Thinking about what was happening, Plansin answered my question while being next to me. I said "Oh", then I moaned in pain, then

Plansin said "drink this will help you out"

I said "ok" as I groaned.

Don't get out of bed, you'll feel even more pain, then I just layed there, just thinking what next. Hours later, I got out of bed just to see the view, but then this strange voice came to me in my head,

"Hello... My name is Evilsen, I'm the demon that will grant you anti-magic, but tell no one about this."

Then I got so scared that I went back to bed, under my leaf blanket. Once the days had passed I got better, and better, but I couldn't do like half the things I used to.

Plansin said "I could help you"

I said "okay",

We took the first steps easily. Then we got harder and harder till I could do 1-2 shadow Stealth. I was so happy, I was getting better and better, I could use my stealth powers again and my bow. But then my curse came and made me feel intense feelings again,

"Here take some of this anti-magic magic" said the demon

I had anti-magic taking over my body, so I went zooming past Plansin.

Chapter Four: My danger

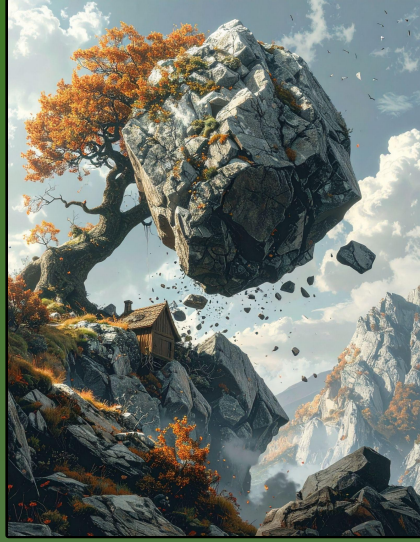

Plansin couldn't get me due to my speed, but he used his magic to almost catch me. When I had the chance I went straight to Plansin, but before I could reach him,

"AH" My curse had started to hurt me.

"I am taking the anti-magic back, your to weak still"

As I still get better, will I be able to face what's coming next?

Chapter Five: The Surprise Attack

I was going to attack Plansin with the power the demon had grant me, but then it vanished

"You're too weak to handle my power" said the demon
Before I knew it, I passed out, as Plansin called out my name.

"Forest Clones" said Plansin

His clones brought me to the tree of life. They were fast so I couldn't see anything. Before I knew it, I was at a tree stomp. I was laying on top of a grass pile, while the guardians, who were wizards, were saying this forbidden language to try and heal me. After some time I eventually got better from it. Then Plansin brought me to the bed I originally laid in. I was so tired I just kept sleeping.

"3-5 days later"

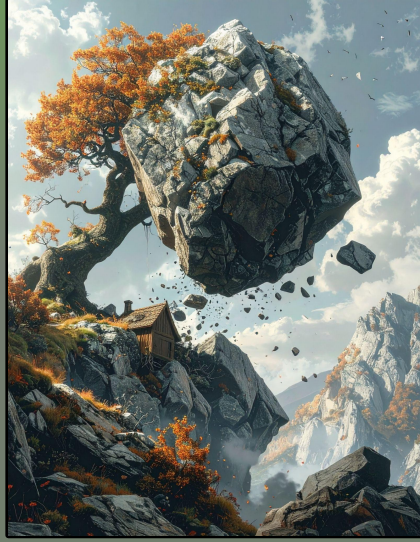

I woke up, Plansin nowhere to be seen, then as I was walking to the door to see the view.

"Boom" the tree house got hit

As I went out, I saw the Guardians getting attacked by the Orcs. I went into the tree to grab my things so I could help the guardians. I got into the tree and grabbed my things and headed out to help them. As I was making my way to the front, I saw a part of a tree falling on a family, so I used my fast assassin skill to go save them. Lots of boulders kept coming into the kingdom, I kept ducking to be on the safe side. Once I made my way to the front of the castle wall, there I saw Plansin.

Plansin said "The orcs attacked surprisingly"

Chapter Five: The Surprise Attack

"We are trying everything we can." "We called for aid"

"The elves and dwarfs are on their way here right now"

"Okay, I'll go to the front and I'll hold them off as long as I can" I said

"When I'm doing that make sure you guys are ready when I come back." "Yes, we will Lanthirion." said Plansin.

As I was making my way to the front lines of the orcs, one of their generals said "Hold"

Then the orcs stopped marching. One of the

The generals said "who are you?"

I said "I'm becoming the best assassin"

"The orcs laughed"

Then I said "Well.. Come and see for yourself"

As they stopped laughing.

"Go you four and kill him" said the orc general.

But before they could start to attack me, I killed them in an instant.

The orc general said "ATTACK HIM NOW!"

Then the orcs were running to me, then

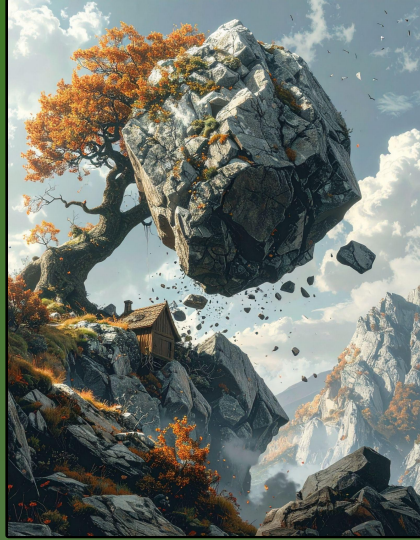

I said "If you are there you demon give me the anti-magic body once more" "Very Well, lets see you try to handle it." As the demon laughs

Anti-magic came all over my body, the orcs saw and slowly stopped

The orc general said "ATTACK AT WILL!"

They came to me like it was raining. Once the anti-magic was done going all over my body, I felt then intents pain in my chest, but I knew if I gave up, I wouldn't be able to use this power again. Then I kept my cool and took big breaths, it worked a little. Then I knew this was the perfect moment, I flew into the sky, scooping down and hitting the orcs, while they were shooting their arrows at me.

Chapter Five: The Surprise Attack

"HA, this is so much fun" as I said while flying

"SHOOT HIM DOWN!" said the orc general

I kept scooping down and kept hitting them, not knowing that in the distance that an orc was ready to shoot its arrow. Once he shot it, I saw it coming to me, I thought I was a goner because it could only block magic, but then it hit me and it fell. Then I realized it was poisonous because I saw something fall from the arrow tip.

"Lanthirion, we're ready, you can come," said Plansin in the distance

I said "Alright, im coming now" As I scooped down one last time before going.

When I flew back to the castle, an orc tried to shoot me, for some reason, but I didn't really think much of it. Once I got back from the front,

Plansin said "are you okay?"

I said back, "I'm fine."

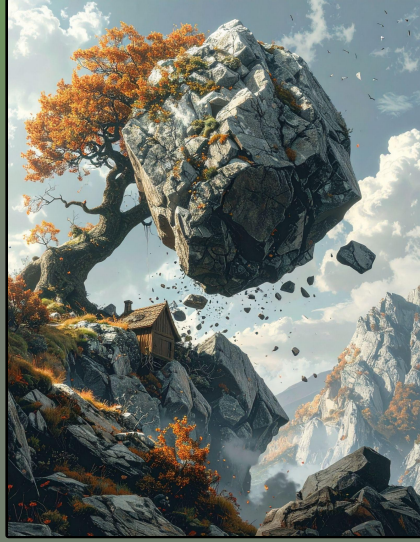

"How many orcs are there?" said Plansin,

"About 100k orcs," I said. Okay, I'll let the wizard king know about this. As Plansin was going to tell the wizard king, I got ready for the wall part of the battle. The orcs were advancing to the castle, the wizards used their spells to hit the orcs.

The orc general said "bring it fourth"

As dozens of carts came the wizards fired their spells at the carts. The wizards managed to hit some of them, but not all of them... They were closing in, I shot my crystal arrow to the carts and it did nothing, till I saw trolls pushing them on the bottom, so I told the wizards to fire at the trolls.

Chapter Five: The Surprise Attack

This kept the orcs from reaching the wall, we managed to destroy more of the carts, but more and more kept appearing, then eventually they reached the wall.

"Swords" said one of the wizard captains

Then it happened the orcs breached the cart doors and attacked, the wizards attacked, with some of them firing spells too. I was firing tons of my crystal arrows, I was almost running out,

"Cuts" as I used my shadow Stealth to grab my arrows back

I was trying to see where Plansin was, as I was trying to walk to the back of the soldiers to find Plansin. I sensed a presence behind me, and I dodged the attack in time, and I fired an arrow towards it. My arrow hit the thing, but it came straight back at me. I caught it, thinking who this could be, till I saw the sword and outfit. This was no ordinary orc, it was the second best assassin in the world...

"Well, well, well if it isn't the Lanthirion"

"Hello Urthak, it's nice to see you again.."

As I got ready to fight.

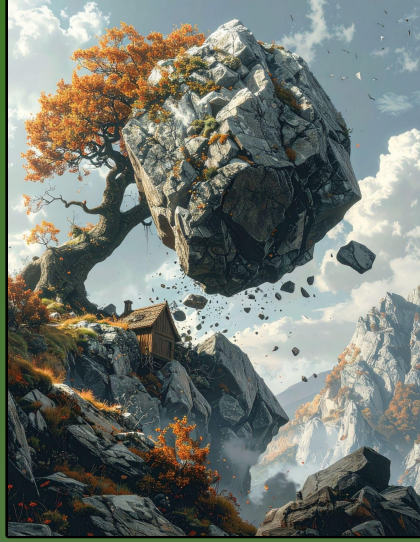

"How are you doing, Lanthirion," said Urthak

"I'm doing fine" I said back

Then he appeared behind me, before I could get ready. I dashed before he could slash me, barely escaping it. I got a hold of myself and positioned myself for his attacks, I was thinking what to do next, then

"Whoosh"

Chapter Five: The Surprise Attack

"Clang" as our weapon's clash

"You've gotten a bit faster, Lanthirion"

"But not fast enough"

As he cuts my arm a little. I gotta focus,

"Inside my brain, think where he is coming from"

Right there as I shot my arrow to him.

"Very, impressive, you actually caught up with me."

"But try to come to me now," said Urthak.

Will I be able to defeat Urthak?

Chapter Six: The Best Assassin in the world.

We both kept clashing with our weapons, we both went into the castle very fast and the wizards were not able to catch us at this speed. Then he disappeared, I stopped and focused on getting where he went, then I saw Plansin coming to me and saying something. Then I realized that Plansin was Urthak's target, so I went to Plansin as fast as I could. Once I got there I was sensing Urthak, so I pushed Plansin and took the impact.

"Lanthirion, this is Lok'tar Ogar (victory or death) time to finish you." As he was swinging his sword to me, I waited for death, Then "whoosh" the sword went flying to the ground.

"Welcome, Moon" said Urthak

And I said "MOON!?"

"It's been a while since Lanthirion," said Moon.

"Come on, Lanthirion lets beat this guy, don't you want to become the best Assassin?"

Then I rushed to Moon's side and

I said "Yeah"

"Let's beat this guy, then I'll become the best assassin."

Then we both rushed to Urthak

Urthak said "Finally two worthy opponents."

Then we all clashed our weapons, then Moon and I jumped and shot an arrow at him.

Chapter Six: The best Assassin in the world

"Boom" as Urthak hits the arrows

I stayed back and fired arrows while Moon attacked him, we both were working so well together to the point Urthak was getting overwhelmed. Then Urthak ate something, then he became stronger for Moon to handle, then in an instant

"Boom" as Moon goes flying to a building

Then Urthak's eyes locked onto me and I felt overwhelmed, but I kept firing my arrows, but he kept hitting them away.

"TIME TO FINISH YOU LANTHIRION!" As he ran towards me.

He pointed his sword to me, I couldn't run or do anything, If I ran I would be a coward. Then I looked and saw Urthak right there, I didn't move, I was too scared,

"I'm finished, as I closed my eyes."

"Blood falls down"

I opened my eyes to see Moon...

"MOON!"

As I cried. Moon

"You'll be fine, let's get you to the health area right away."

"Lanthirion remembers this, never give up hope, and always keeps dreaming, goodbye now, it was a pleasure fighting alongside you."

Then Urthak took the sword out, "HAHAHAHAHA."

I went into rage holding my bow,

"Ready Lanthirion" said the Demon

Anti-magic came all over my body and I looked at Urthak

I said "Your finish"

Urthak looked at me feeling overwhelmed, I rushed to him as fast as I could and killed him in an instant. Once I killed Urthak, the orcs eventually retreated after hearing Urthak had died.

Chapter Six: The best Assassin in the world

Then I passed out. Before I knew it I was in the same bed. When I woke up, I saw Plansin,

"Lanthirion you're awake now, everybody is waiting for you." As Plansin said it while getting up.

"What do you mean everyone?" I said back.

"Just come out when you are done getting ready. Hm k" said Plansin.

"Okay" I said back.

I got done getting ready, I went outside and I saw them. Once I went outside, I saw Elves, Dwarfs and Wizards cheering me on and saying I'm the best assassin in the world. I was happy they said that to me. I didn't know what to say.

Chapter Six: The best Assassin in the world

"Dear Elves, Dwarfs and wizards I was a noob at first, but then I promised myself that if I gave up on hope, my dream will never ever be true. One day when I was going out, my rival Moon always would be one step ahead of me, but I didn't think much of it. I eventually cared a little too much to the point I left my kingdom to set on a journey and train to become the best assassin in the world. I finally learned that no matter how much I train and stuff I would always be the same and that I would never change. But to this day without my help from my parents, Plansin, and Moon I would have never become what i'm today. Moon was my rival, he's not here anymore but he would always be my rival, he was a cool guy and he would always push me off the building sometimes, "Laughs" He would always be remembered as the best assassin in the world and we'll tell our future kids about him. And as for my parents, they really never paid any attention to me, but I always loved them no matter what. When I said can I become the best assassin to my parents they never said anything back, but I heard them say yes quietly, so I never disliked them and I never will. They are my number one supporters and I will always be there to protect them. And last Plansin, the day I met you I was so happy, I wasn't alone anymore and I knew when we were a duo we would be a good duo. And if it wasn't for you, I would've been dead a lot of times if you weren't there for me. You and I would become the best duo next in the world surpassing the Dwarf and dragon who are the best in the world. As Plansin and I come to our new journey, we will always be coming back just to check on you guys. We don't know what will be on our next adventure, but we will fight our way through the danger and we will find new resources for the people. Once we do, we can upgrade our kingdoms, weapons, houses, armor, and any other things that we can upgrade. When faced with challenges we will fight them together and win them."

Chapter Six: The best Assassin in the world

That is the end of my speech, Elves, Dwarfs, Wizards one last thing remember this, Never Ever Give Up On Your Dream Because If You Do The challenges that you face will become even harder. If it is hard, remember we are here to hear you and face those challenges together. If we work together we can work to those goals together and we will protect those in need, we will destroy those Orcs. When we destroy those Orcs we will become the best in the world and show all those other kingdoms/ clans that if we work together we can overcome those that come and try to hurt us. When we lose a kingdom, we help support the survivors and we get revenge. And that is all my people.

"This new journey will either be successful or fail, but we will overcome those challenges together."

The End
