Getting beat with a stunstick

Backstory: It was an ordinary camp in the forest, 3 cool guys and 1 pretty girl and me the ugly one where everyone hated me for my looks. When night came and there were only 2 tents the girl would sleep in her own tent, the 3 cool guys slept in the other tent all together. I look to the tent where the girl was and slept in there, she saw me and screamed the 3 cool guys woke up and beat me up badly. They beat me so hard they kept going and making me bleed, the last guy kicked me so hard and i fell in the well unconscious and when i woke up i was hurt and sad. Then i promised to myself to take my revenge on humanity had pure hatred, 4 weeks pass i start to transform into a non-human turning into a creature. 1 year passes i fully transform, I am called the rake for my sharp claws to tear humans skin or flesh. As i climb out the well it is dark and perfect timing to hunt i see 2 guards at the generator 1 guard fixing, the other looking out for danger, I go near the 2nd guard and when the 2nd guard sees me i take him out exposing his ribcage. The first guard turns around and sees his companion dead, so when the 1st guard turns around he dies too. 3 or 4 Humans go to the forest and prepare when I come, I run at the humans, they hit me 1 by 1 with their stunstick over and over and over again, i get tired and collapse on the floor. Just when the humans turn away i bolt back to my cave/well damaged or hurt badly. I learned that humans can defend or attack me so i will use my modes or learn better them. Learn every movement from the humans.

Trees, hills, rocks

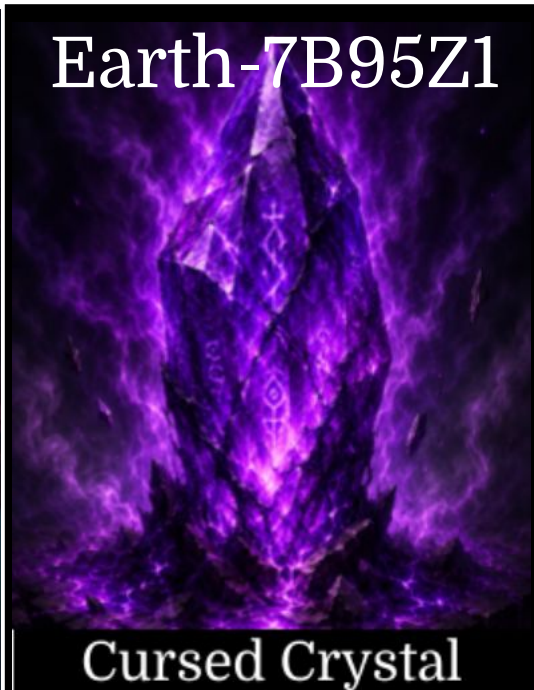

Tracker & stun stick

Coordinates (x, y)	13,000, 12,000	Government Type	N/A
Population	Whoever enters	Intergalactic Disposition	Hostile
Terrain	Woody or all in the woods	Primary Race(s)	N/A
Climate	natural	Primary Resource/ Technology	The stunstick is used to defense so the Rake, the alpha creature of Dark Planet, don't get the people to kill. The tracker is there to tell how far/close am the Rake is to the humans.
Size	1.0	Description	It's just looks empty, seems empty, and all empty. In the forest you see a generator, radio tower, a "safe house", and base camp. Your or you are not alone you are being watch as soon as you enter the forest.
Planetary Wildlife	The creature that lives on the "the rakes" planet or aka the forest planet is the wendigo. Looks like the rake but a deer type looks a little bit scarier but the rake would be more dangerous.

Besson

Age: 18

Species: human

Gender: male

Home Planet: the dark planet

How we Met

When i was going to my cave besson grabbed my arm and help me understand how humans work and would teach me how to be a human being again.

Ability #1: Making swords out of anything

Besson has the ability to make swords out of anything, anything he stands on by just lifting a hand or a finger. Just a swipe up and the ground shapes itself a sword, how many swords and how sharp the swords are. (He can make swords out of anything)

Ability #2: Giant Iron Robot

When Besson's temper reaches its limit (when anyone he cares about gets hurt or dies) his backpack will transform into a jetpack he will go into the air and 2 giant iron legs, 2 giant iron arms will attach onto him with a giant iron torso and a head.

Living Space: The cave

Outside looks

The outside of the cave looks plain, looks like a normal cave how other caves would look. The cave seems all normal on the outside looks but on the inside it's 100% different.

The inside of the cave

On the inside of the cave all it is, is just dark and you won't see anything but you can hear music and you see food on the table in there when you bring any light source it's battery dies instantly. Anything with light source will die immediately without any warning.

The Rake's room

The Rake's room is very comfortable, there is nothing wrong with it. It's bed is comfortable is because Rake never sleeps at night he stays up all night and is like a guard to protect his wonderful cave.

Chapter one : The unholy one

That killed 147. Still not enough. Not enough to give me peace. I look over the landscape of the Dark Planet and all I see is bodies. Anyone that enters my planet will suffer or get slain by me. Trackers and stun sticks are found near some trees, trackers are used to track me, stun sticks are used as a defense tool to push me back. If I am ever near them, I would keep hunting and killing until I am the only alone wolf. I'll still keep going on a killing spree until everyone is dead or until I am, all I ever felt was the coldness, turned down and pain from others when I was human but now I am here to return that coldness and pain. My backstory was so bad, i was bullied my whole life because everybody disliked me about everything about me. Back in my backstory I was on a field trip camp it was morning sun is shining like no other light or star i grab woods get pushed down and i have to pick up the wood again, when it was night all tents were full i tried to sleep in 1 but got pushed or kicked in the face i had to sleep outside but it was so cold I couldn't bare the coldness so I slept in the other tent, what happened next was the worst thing I experienced someone screamed so 3 humans came at me beat the living crap out of me I was bleeding half to death the 3rd human kicked me made me unconscious when I fell down the well. When I woke up I was still bleeding a bit.

Chapter one : The unholy one

(part 2)

I realized that my hands were starting to disappear and claws were forming. I was trying to climb the well but failed and fell. After I was in that well for a year after my claws were fully complete, I climbed out of the well and started to hunt people for my revenge and do harmful things to humans. Tearing, slashing, piercing through, and jabbing humans my whole life everytime i see a human it always brings me back to my horrible backstory because all I think is that the humans will hurt me, or even bully me with their fist or stun stick. I don't feel safe near people, just something in my heart tells me that maybe...just maybe I still got a chance to change because it's not too late yet. Killing in my whole life feels more wrong than right, killing doesn't help my problems. It makes my problems worse than I could ever imagine. I should change and get help... but from who? I don't even know, everyone I kill makes other people hate me too. I haven't been outside in the light for so long. I don't even remember when was the last time I saw the sunlight, because I am a stalker who comes for humans at night who'd come for me?

Chapter two : Wrong

What's my problem is that I would always get bullied in school and have no friends. It's hurts being left out and I felt that, when there was a field trip next thing you know it you get jumped cuz the teacher left me with some bullies, getting beat up hurts me all i got to feel is pain never felt love nor kindness, my brain was developing killing because that's all I ever got from my happiness and love, and all i got in return was getting put down like a stool or a pet. When i became a monster people still hated me even more so all i could feel for humans is pure hatred toward them. The more people the worse my bad memories come back to me, if I needed help who'd help me to understand life again when my brain only thinks of negatives. I've never really seen the bulb of light, I even forgot its name and I hate that light. I haven't really seen that light but I'm too afraid of what people will think of me once I show up in that light. I don't ever think people would help me for what I have done to many others, I don't want to get hurt or bullied again. So the best choice is to never interact with humans again, for if I ever see them they will be in danger, from me so the best choice is to stay away from all human beings.

Chapter three : disturbed

For every time I try to show myself in the sun I just...I just can't do it I'm too scared. What will people think of me when I show myself they will start hurting me again or even discuss me, as soon as I was going to my cave because the sun was coming but someone grabbed me and stopped me from going into my cave, he told me that hiding wouldn't help me with anything. He introduced himself and said "Hi, my name is Besson. What's your name?" I replied "I'm... The Rake" we talked for a long time and he told me that he would be my companion to help me with anything I would be struggling with. I said to him "I don't know how to show myself. I am scared of what people would think of me" Besson said "Dude! Don't worry, you'll be fine I promise. I get it, it's scary at first but first time is always the best time so give it a try and see" I just nodded trusting him with what he has said to me, I also said "I am scared of humans when I give a little scratch or look at them it makes me go back into backstory too." Besson said "that is ok we all have a fear of stuff that could lead us back to our horrible backstory, but don't let it get to you and try to overcome your fear over time." I nodded listening to Besson

Chapter four : friendship

I went into the sun and felt a bit warm, it felt nice and fun. I saw humans. I got a bit scared or frightened they would run away or scream away but no, the humans looked at me and told me that I was new here and they were great to see me, they greeted me friendly. I got to witness the kindness and love I haven't felt in years, I just feel so happy but it won't change my monster to a human. I am stuck as a monster. I am happy and sad at the same time. I am happy to see people and the love and kindness they show me and I feel that I can change little by little. But I am sad because I am forever stuck as this monster and I can't change back to a human. I guess my claws can be used as a protection for these humans. Besson told me to protect the other people because these people cannot protect themselves, so now my duty is to protect the others

Chapter five : War

A couple of years passed and I changed from bad to good, my senses came to me and I realized that being bad and taking my revenge was not a good choice. Now I know that it is best to be a good creature because of Besson who taught me without the help I'd still be hurting other humans but... now I know I shouldn't hurt others. I should learn to forgive others and help them instead of fighting, fighting is never the answer. Hurting others and killing others is wrong, I have learned my lesson. I am so joyful that Besson has taught me the right way, taught me how to go the right path, taught me that kindness comes first before warning and killing, and I am very proud of myself for achieving good ways instead of bad ways (learning alone like a lone wolf). After I learned how to be in the good ways I, I dropped to my knees and started to tear up because I have never felt this kindness in for so long, I felt like I am a part of a family and that I no longer need to hide myself because I have people and humans here for me(family).

Chapter five : war (part 2)

As soon as I thought I could be a good person forever, that did not last forever because enemies came and found humans. I looked at those dark blue-eyed wolves. I couldn't count them all, all I knew was that there were more than a thousand. They looked pretty hungry like a hell wolf. The next thing i know they ran to the village I took one down(gave me no choice but to kill one to save the humans) Besson came outside and he looked at the hungry wolves, some wolves were approaching Besson and I busy while the rest of the wolves ran to eat the village, Besson used his first ability(spawned swords) with a finger and shot it at some wolves the pack stopped and targeted Besson and I. The pack attacked Besson and I all at once I got a scratch, Besson looked at my scratch his temper went high above his limit he formed into the giant iron mech. Besson beat 2/4 of the pack. There were exactly 500 more, suddenly I used one of my modes(blood hour skies turned red) and my limbs extended very long and I brutally beat all the rest of the 500. I turned back to normal and the red moon(lunar moon) turned back to normal and i was exhausted from using that mode, as soon as I thought Besson and I beat them all of a sudden more came but there were only 3, the 3 wolves had this purple aura around them it looked like a powerful curse that could kill anything it could see.

Chapter five : War (part 3)

Besson went to beat the up, but the wolves ripped the mech legs in such instant speed I could not see, Besson open the chest to leave the mech the 3 cursed wolves shredded the mech like a napkin, I was terrified, I was thinking that if I didn't do anything Besson could die... I unleashed a mode that was Against my will saying i would never use this mode, but I never agreed to use it to save a whole lot of people. I used the mode(lights out + blood hour + cook hour + devils will hour + god hour) I combined the modes and I became so fast and powerful I took out 2 cursed wolves, the 3rd wolf grew stronger, I could feel the curses present. The twisted cursed wolf and I fought for hours. I managed to brutally damage it badly, but I saw that the curse was healing the wolf slowly over time so I had to end this twisted curse before it could do any more harm. I went all out and so did the twisted cursed wolf. I hurt the wolf till it was on the floor but I realized I had a curse scratch on me. When I saw that I knew I only had a matter of time before I died. I ended the wolf by crushing its skull, Then all of a sudden I felt weakened. I fell on my knees and held the floor with my hands, at this moment I knew that my time was ending in a few minutes. My vision was blurry, my body weakened, I could barely stand, my arms and legs were shaking on their own

Chapter five : War (part 4)

I vomited but it was just a purple bubble and some sort of curse energy. I used all my strength to tell Besson, I told him “Hey... Besson. Th- Thanks for everything. cough, cough I felt alive whe- when I was changing to be a better creature to protect others... I said to besson “You really helped me when I needed it the mo- most and... cough, cough It really did help, I wish- I just wish I could experience more with humans and spend more time with you... cough, cough bu- but I guess everything went south huh? I- I had fun with all of the humans and you too Bes- Besson cough, cough I just want to say cough, cough It was really cough, cough worth it cough, cough saving you and cough, cough all the humans cough, cough stay alive for me yeah? cough, cough cough, cough cough, cough cough, cough Th-... Thank- Thanks Besson, I... cough, cough appreciate it... so mu”-(collapses and dies being a hero) Besson said “Please Rake don’t leave me, you were the best for me... P- Please come back, I don’t want you gone.” Then Besson started to cry after being gone but he knew that it was the sacrifice to save all of the humans and him. Besson knew that he could teach others about me, about how I saved everyone and changed from being bad to good. Besson knew that he would bring my legacy by passing one to another.

Chapter six : Rememberable hero

I became good for the first time in forever, I've never felt happy, loved, only feeling hated everywhere and everyday. But I life changed ever since I met a wonderful cheerful boy named Besson, he changed my life ever since I met him I chose to try my best to be good because all killing would ever do would make my life miserable or even worse, I knew if I could try to be good people would less hate me and would love me if I did try to be good so I did try my hardest to be a good creature for once. Some people judge me but Besson told me to ignore them because none of those human don't know what was a being the best or being a kind person, son then I ignored them and started to still do my best to be a good guy and after a few years of doing my hardest to be the best it finally came true from the courage that Besson told me he believed in me. Working hard pays off, I celebrated with humans for the first time and that made me really happy. When the wolves came Besson and I took them out but 3 corrupted wolves and they were so powerful so I had to go against my will to save humanity it was the best choice i have ever made, after that I have died of course died in honor and now my legacy will go on forever by passing one by another. It's not about forgetting me, it's about my legacy
