Backstory: I come from a planet called Nonia. My species originated from there. We live in a world with all different types of races, Willows, Miffies, Kodens, and Sadie's. We also all get powers at a certain age. My planets separates us based on republic and democracy.

Nonia

Willow

Charm Pop

Coordinates (x, y)	X- 7,000 Y- 11,000	Government Type	Democracy and Republic
Population	10 billion	Intergalactic Disposition	The democrats are very friendly to each other and the republics all respect one another. But when it comes to democrats and republicans respecting each other they deny. They despise each other.
Terrain	This planet is mostly electric powered with no mountains and no deserts.	Primary Race(s)	Miffy, Koden, Willows, Sadie
Climate	The weather is always 70 degrees sunny and bright out and it never snows.	Primary Resource/ Technology	Nonia is most known for charm pop. Charm pop is a medicine known for helping animals receive their powers. Only 7 percent of animals receive their powers on the republic side. The democrats produce them to the republic side in trade for supplies. Charm pops also get traded outside of Nonia. And into other planets for high prices. On the democrat side of Nonia about 50 percent of animals receive their powers.
Size	Nonia- 1.0	Description	Nonia is a planet divided into two parts. Democracy and republic. There is a border in between the two governments. Everytime someone votes they get switched to that part of the world. Nonia is a very modern and tech world. Nonia has two presidents for each side. There is about 4 different type of races who live in Nonia. Miffies (bunnies/rabbits), Kodens (Koalas/Pandas), Willows (Bears/ Lions), and the most rarest race, Sadies (Turtles/Giraffe) They each have different powers according to their species.
Planetary Wildlife	The most common creature in Nonia is a Willow. Willows always get their powers at 5 years old. They are either a bear or lion. They can change into any color and grow out wings or horns. Willows always have glitter skin and is the only race allowed to enter the republican side and democrat side.

Sparkle Berry

Pinkleberry

Origin Story: This item came to be because two planets wanted to create a magical item to defeat evil planets. They were at war at the time and severely losing. So the two planet use both of their resources and came up with a solution to win. Sparkle berry. Sparkle berry is one of a kind wand that is only used when needed.

Appearance: Sparkle berry is a wand with a flower on the top with glitter and pink and orange colors. The wand is used to help any planets in need. The style comes from two specials planet resources. They hope to end world peace with this wand.

● World Wand

The wand is usually the power to build houses, make food. Lock guns. Create borders, and divide animals. Depending on the animal using it, if the want feels a special connection with the animal it will be open to unlocking more powers.

◆ Wish Wand

To a certain amount of people depending on your connection, The wand will be open to giving you 2 wishes. These wishes will be granted to you no matter what. But for every wish you get, a consequence will come your way. It's up to you to decide.

★ Peace Wand

To a rare amount of people, you get the wish to have world peace, to have open borders. But only one person in the world is deserving of this power.

Chapter 1: Escaping SprizzleSide

"Moji, did you hear? It's election day!!" Said Kuhan. I jump out of bed trying to process what he just said. I get dressed and drive to the election plate.

"Name please."

"It's Moji Kookie."

"And what would you like to choose?"

I hesitate, "Charmcicle." I stand there awkwardly for 30 seconds while she puts in my information.

"You are all good, next!"

Wondering where to go next I see commotion, someone is trying to cross the borders.

"But how? It's not even 6:00 pm yet?"

I walk over to see and it's someone over on SprizzleSide trying to cross the border. But this happens almost everyday so no one is really bothered.

Chapter 1: Escaping SprizzleSide

The security pulls them back and I walk into a coffee shop. Everyone is bickering, One of the Willows starts screaming in excitement, I check my phone and see that the president's son, Evan Kake. He says that he wants to join our side! Everyone screams in excitement.

"Woah, no way!"

This must be a joke! I go on social media to see him cross the border. His mom is on the other side crying and his dad's face is filled with disappointment. Everyone is screaming, paparazzi are everywhere, but he just walks into a quiet building. His whole family are Sadies, so it's pretty rare to see them over on our side. Sadies usually stay on the other side. In not even 2 hours, he blew up like crazy.

An illustration of two plush characters, a white rabbit and a green turtle, standing in a park-like setting. The rabbit has a small 'x' for a mouth, and the turtle has a smiling face. In the background, there is a stone bridge over a body of water, cherry blossom trees, and a cafe area with tables and umbrellas. Directional signs on the right point to 'CAFÉ', 'VIEWPOINTS', and 'FLOWER GARDEN'.

Chapter 2: Hi Evan!

As I go back home I see him in my house!

"What are you doing in my house?!"

"I'm sorry to bother you, could I live with you for just a while, I will help you pay rent."

"Okay I guess, there is a spare bedroom on your left. You can put your stuff there."

I sit on my couch waiting for him to come back.

"So tell me about yourself."

"Oh, I'm Evan Kake, I'm 25 years old."

"Nice to meet you Evan, I'm Moji Kookie, I'm 24 years old."

We talk for hours as he tells me about himself. After, we watch a movie and we both head to bed. I wake up to a loud noise, it's my phone. Apparently there's a nightmare coming to this planet.

"Evan, have you heard about the nightmare?"

"Yeah, but it's fake."

"It can't be fake if it's on the news."

I go outside and right near the border there's a purple cloud of air swarming through our city. I get an alert from my phone.

Chapter 2: Hi Evan!

"Attention Nonia, there has been a disturbance on our planet, this is a lockdown, stay inside and don't go out. This is not a drill"

Usually when we get alerted they say Charmcicles, our city name, but if it's saying our planet name that means it must be bad over on Sprizzleside. Seconds later the whole house shakes, an earthquake?! Nonia has never had an earthquake, our planet is known for never having weather issues. Something must be really wrong. I look at mysolarsystem.com and there have been nightmares everywhere! On almost every planet. Lucky for us we are right outside a planet. But it could be coming any second.

"We should do something!"

"Like what?"

"Well Evan, we do have powers, and you are the president's son, if anyone should do something it should be you!"

"I've never used my powers!"

"Okay maybe we're not good at using our powers or fighting, but we can still help. Why don't you make a statement to everyone."

"Like what?"

Chapter 3: Moji Miffy

A few minutes later the statement reads, "Hello, this is Evan Kake and Moji Kookie, from planet Nonia. I'm Evan Kake, I'm the president's son of Sprizzleside. There has been an attack on not only our planet, but our whole entire solar system. We believe anyone who is outside these nightmares should help those in need. I believe we should bring our powers together and use it for the greater good. Supply medicine or any food for those in these nightmares, and create a solution to stop this nightmare. We hope everyone for the best, and to stay strong."

We submitted this statement online and it has almost 100 billion views. And 5 planets replied saying they would be glad to help those in need. Later at night, Me and Evan sit on the couch and come up with ideas. Randomly Evan says

"Moji, tell me about your background story."

"What?" I get an incoming call, "Wait hold on."

After my call, he looks at me stunned, "What's wrong?"

"You are Moji Miffy?"

"Yeah."

Chapter 3: Moji Miffy

"Wait, so you're saying I've been living with the president's daughter of Charmcicles?"

"Well my parents actually are planning to retire."

"Well that answers my question about wanting to know your backstory."

"I just don't tell people because I don't think it's a big deal."

"So why did you change your last name?"

"I got married when I was 20, but he passed away 2 years ago."

"Oh, I'm sorry."

"It's okay."

My phone gets an alarm. The nightmare has spread to our planet! Anyone who looks at the black sky will become paranoid. Oh goodness.

"Moji you are in luck, other planets are willing to help us!"

A glowing orange flower with multiple petals is centered within a transparent crystal ball. The flower has a bright, sparkling center. The background behind the crystal ball shows a city skyline with tall buildings and a bridge, all rendered in a soft, glowing orange and pink light. The overall scene is magical and ethereal.

Chapter 4: The Cure

We meet at the Pink House in between Charmcicle and Sprizzleside. Evans' parents aren't willing to help until they get their son back. But Evans refuses. Felicity Numen from planet Icielant, Emilia Frownie from planet Ruth, Wilkei Sports from planet Bomb and many more have come to help us. We create a plan. All planets are ordered to have a magical item. We decide to use our powers and combine all of our items to create one powerful item to destroy these nightmares. There are about 30 planets meaning 30 magical items we have to combine.

A scientist came to examine it to see if it was safe enough to even do this. This item will be dangerous but can be used for good. We make it specifically for this nightmare to make sure our planets will be safe. Of course we add Sparkle Berry. There's a special level for Sparkle Berry. But it can only open for people who have a special connection with the wand. Evan believes It will choose me. But I believe it will choose another president. 1 week goes by, the item is almost done being created. The nightmares are getting worse and many planets have turned into disasters.

Chapter 4: The Cure

"Moji, are you ready?" Felicity said.

"Yes."

We call our magical item Solar Scape. We all pack up our belongings and head outside. Not a single creature in sight. Everyone is too scared to even go outside. We are not certain it will work because the Solar Scape can only work depending on the person. Almost an hour goes by. Nothing's working. Already 25 people have tried. Felicity goes and the Solar Scape actually starts working!

"Guys it's actually working!" Felicity yells.

But after a couple of minutes it suddenly stops. The nightmares are growing bigger and our solar system is falling apart.

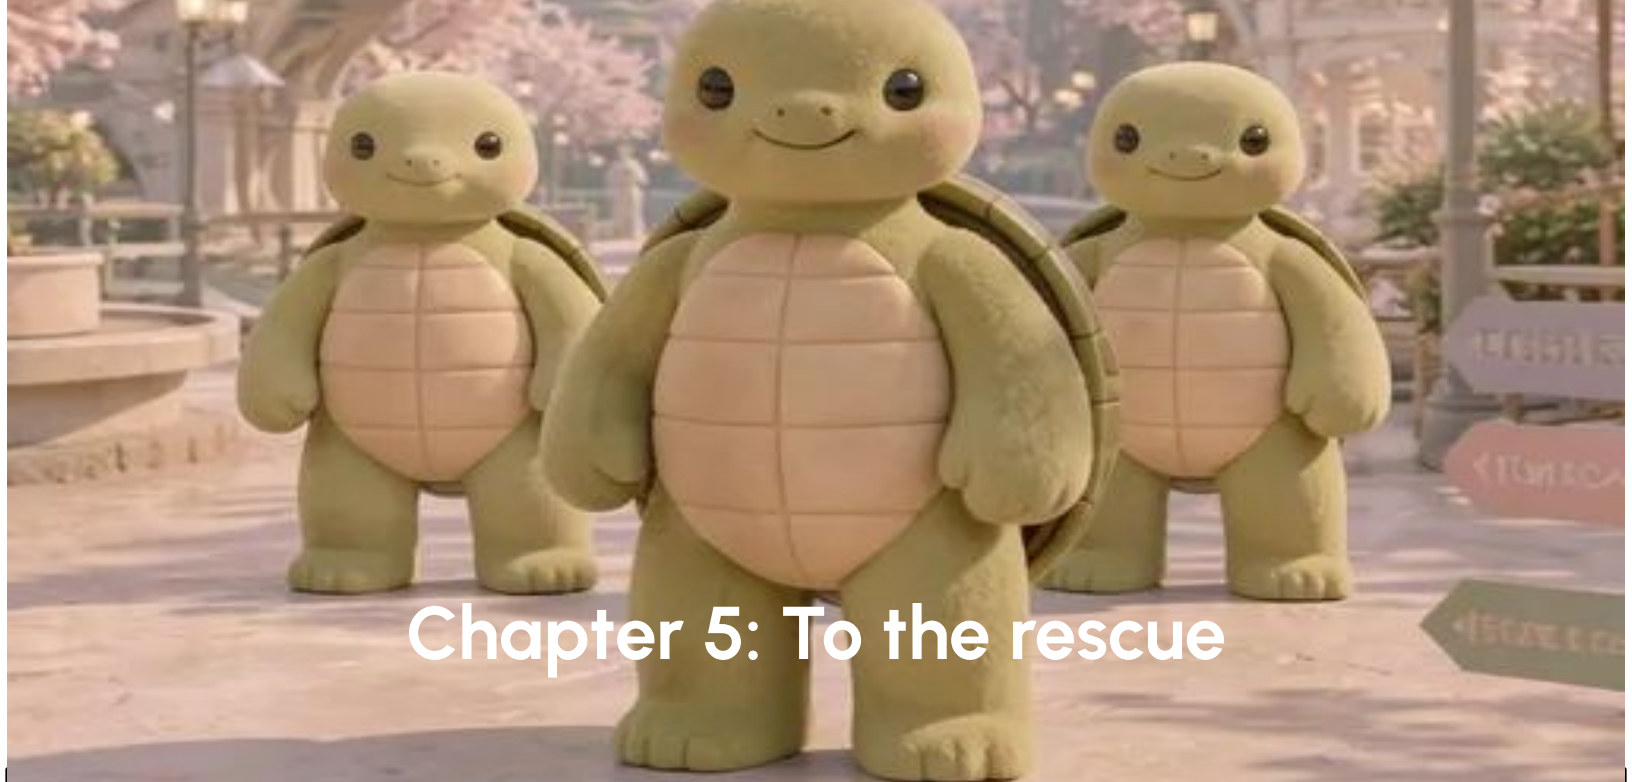

"Moji, I think you should try."

"Okay I'll try it."

I grab the globe, positive It wont do anything.

"It's not working guys."

Everyone tries the globe, nothing works. But suddenly Delfy Kake and Max Kake come through the borders.

Three green cartoon turtles with large, friendly eyes and smiling faces are standing in a row on a paved path. The turtle in the center is slightly larger than the two flanking it. They are in a park-like setting with trees and a building in the background.

Chapter 5: To the rescue

"Evan, I thought they weren't willing to help us?"

"That's what I thought too, I don't know why they are here."

They drive right next to us.

"I know we said we weren't going to help, but everyone over on Sprizzleside is scared. We are all scared. So we've come to help."

"Sure, what can you guys help us with?"

They pull out the WorldWideWand. It's basically a wand that can cure anything. But it is only used for emergencies.

"Mom, I thought you said you weren't ever going to use that wand?" Evan says.

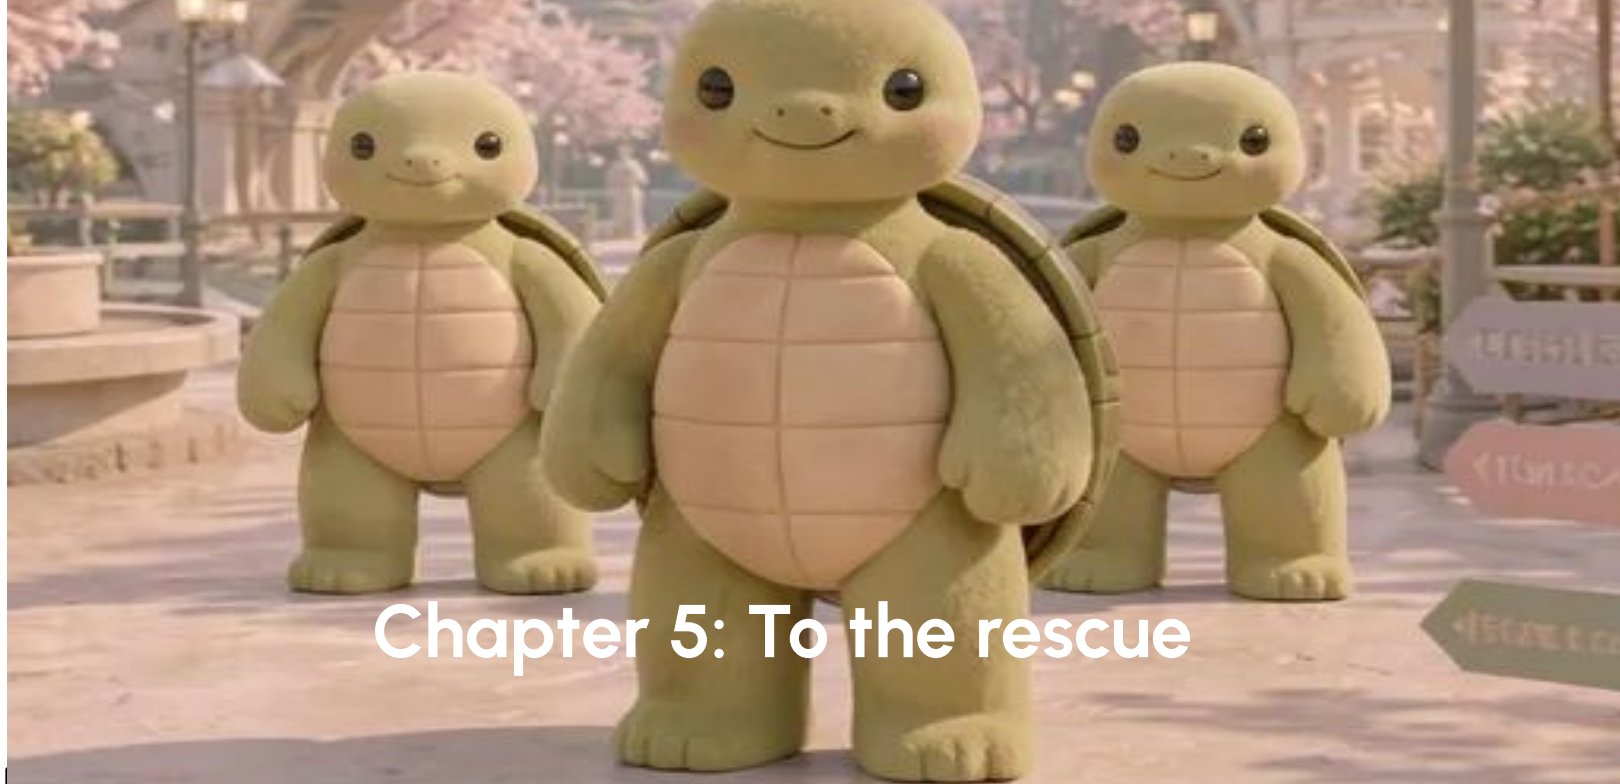

"I can't stand here and let everyone suffer because of my pettiness. Even if I'm mad at you, I can't let you suffer as well." She grabs the globe. And sticks it right on top of the wand. But it wasn't doing anything.

"Here Moji, you should be the one to do this."

I carefully grab the globe. The globe starts lighting up!

"It's working!"

Seconds go by and the whole sky is clearing up. Everyone starts coming out of their house, as well as people cheering in excitement. The nightmares have disappeared! Evan's parents look at me with happiness.

Chapter 5: To the rescue

Hours later I sent all the president's home thanking them for all their hard work. My parents congratulated me by making me president at the next voting! But I still had a gut feeling something was wrong. Maybe not with the nightmares, but with our planet. I don't think we should be separated like this. Everyone deserves equality. I go back to the Pink House with Delfy Kake and Max Kake.

Chapter 6: Hope

"I state that instead of making borders between our planet. We should come together as a whole. We should combine our resources together to make this world a better place."

After minutes of talking, they look at each other with awkwardness.

"Give us a minute please."

They talk for about 30 minutes and I just stand there with my parents. My parents have always chosen one side, but they always will support what I do.

"Moji, we thank you for destroying these nightmares, and helping Evan. We appreciate everything you do."

They sign the papers while saying nothing and quietly walk out.

Days go by, suddenly they start taking down the borders.

Charmcicle seeing Sprizzleside for the first time. Everyone cheers in excitement. Evan looks at me with a proud face.

"How did you get my parents to say yes?"

"I don't know, but I'm sure you had something to do with it."

"Haha, I'm pretty sure they won't talk to me for a while, but it's okay."

Chapter 6: Hope

"Oh don't think of it like that."

"Evan, how did you know that I would be able to use the wand?"

"I didn't, I just had hope."
