Chapter 1: The Start Of A New Legacy

6,000 years ago, my planet was founded by my ancestors. The terrain was cold, rocky, and full of mountains. My great, great, great, great-grandfather and his troops sailed in with their ships in complete darkness. Their lanterns hardly gave them any light. Soon after, my great-great-great-great-grandfather sent half his troops to one side of the island to look around and make sure there wasn't anyone on the island. But they weren't the only ones there; there were dragons, and only one special dragon, and it was a sapphire and fire dragon that was the rarest dragon in the world. When my great-great-great-great-grandfather found out about that, he was thrilled. Later, when looking, my great-great-great-great-grandfather found an old abandoned castle that looked like no one had been there in years. So my great-great-great-great-grandfather decided to make his kingdom there. Multiple years later, my dad was born, and he grew up to be the next king and captain of our army. Then, soon after I came along, Hi, I'm Vorri, I'm 19 years old, and I'm a human, but I have powers, but I can't use them, and I don't know how to use them. I have powers because my mom and I get my human side from my dad. I also have a cute dragon named Frostflare. She's white with crystals on her back and cool red patterns on her back that resembles fire. I was 6 when I got her. When I was 16, I became queen after both of my parents died. My dad died in the war, and my mom died from a severe illness. My only best friend was Kai, who was one year older than me. He was very kind, loyal, and loving to everyone, and to me. All my people loved him, and everyone adored him. His dad named him after his grandfather, but I have never met his dad. He said his dad was on a different island, and he said that his mom died when he was very young.

Chapter 2: The Call

Soon, I was told by my people that they heard that the biggest enemy was coming to take over my island in a month. I wrote a letter to my friend who lives on a different island. I asked her if he had gone to her island and if he had done any really bad damage to her island, her castle, and her people. One day later, she writes back to me, saying he did lots of damage and that he enslaved some of her people so they could help with his evil plans. She also told me that he is bringing huge nightmares with him, and it's making people's islands go into fear. When I heard that this happened, I was really worried that my island would go into fear, and I would never be able to have my dream of having my people live in peace and on an island without any enemies, and we could all just live normally. So I decided that I am going to start planning a war now and get my island ready for attack. So I asked my best friend Kai for help, but when I told him I was going to try and defeat Peregrine Tenebris, he started to look at me weirdly and said, "no im sorry I can't help you with that" what do you mean you cant Kai your best friend your supposed to help me and if i dont defeat him hes going to take over my island and i cant have that happen he already killed my dad in war and made my mom die from heart break. "I'm sorry, vorri i cant i would, but I can't". Why not? There has to be a reason you can't. What's the reason? "Vorri, I just can't, okay, so leave me alone." no im not going to leave you alone, you're my best friend, Kai. Why don't you trust me? We have known each other forever, and now you're just leaving me in the dust. "Vorri, I'm not, I just can't." Why? Why can't you just tell me the reason? "Fine, my dad is Peregrine Tenebris, okay, there I said it, my dad is your biggest enemy, okay." WHAT, how can this be? I thought your dad was on a different island that you didnt know of. " I know I'm sorry, Vorri, that's why I can't help you because I don't want to lose my dad as I did with my mom, okay," But Kai both of my parents are dead, and it's because of your father. " I know, and I'm sorry about what happened, but I can't help because I don't want to end up as king if my dad dies, because then I have to be a bad person, and I won't ever be able to be myself again." Im sorry i you can always be yourself but Kai im really sorry but i have to banish you from this island i cant have the son of my worst enemy on my island " i understand im really sorry Vorri" Its okay Kai im really sorry.

Chapter 3: The Helper

Soon after I banished Kai from my island, now I'm stuck, and I can't figure out what I'm going to do next because I have no one to help me know, and I'm scared I won't be strong enough for my island and keep it safe. One week later, I'm still sitting in my castle and not doing anything, and I'm about to give up. But my other best friend, Serena from Planet Lyra, sent me a letter asking if I wanted to go exploring like we used to before she moved away. I said yes because I missed her, and I also need to get my mind off of Kai because I really miss him, and I can't see myself protecting my island without him. Soon we went, and we went to multiple places, but we went to these two planets, and we asked some of the people if we could use some of their magical items, and they said yes, and when we got back to my island Serena told me that she would be right back and that she's taking the stuff with her. So I waited for her, and it took her a while, and when she came back, she was like, "Look at what I got made for you." Oh, wow, thank you Serena. She got me both of the magical items I had borrowed and made me my own magical items. It was a sword with dragon wings on the handle and one dragon wing on the top of the handle, and it was red with a crystal blade. But when I grabbed onto it, I felt something go into me, and it felt really powerful. Then, when I looked back at my hand, it had this weird-looking pattern on it. I asked Serena why this looked like this, and she said she didn't know. I was really scared now because I didn't know what this pattern on my hand was. Serena didn't know what it was either, but she couldn't stay to find out what it was because she had to go home. So after she left, I decided to go up to the mountains that are by my castle and tried to see what this was. So I walked up to the top of the mountain and started to try different things to see what would happen. So first I tried to hold my hand out and push, and suddenly fire came out from my hands. I was shocked, and I quickly stepped back. I tried it again, but with both hands, and the fire came together and became a stronger fire blast. So I went back to my castle to collect my thoughts. When I finished collecting my thoughts, I thought and thought and realized that I do have a person to help me destroy the nightmares, and it's my dragon Frostflare, and now that I realized that I trained my dragon to breathe fire, she can help me defeat the nightmares in the universe. Soon later, I have been practicing for a while now, and now I think I'm ready to defeat the nightmares.

Chapter 4: Defeated

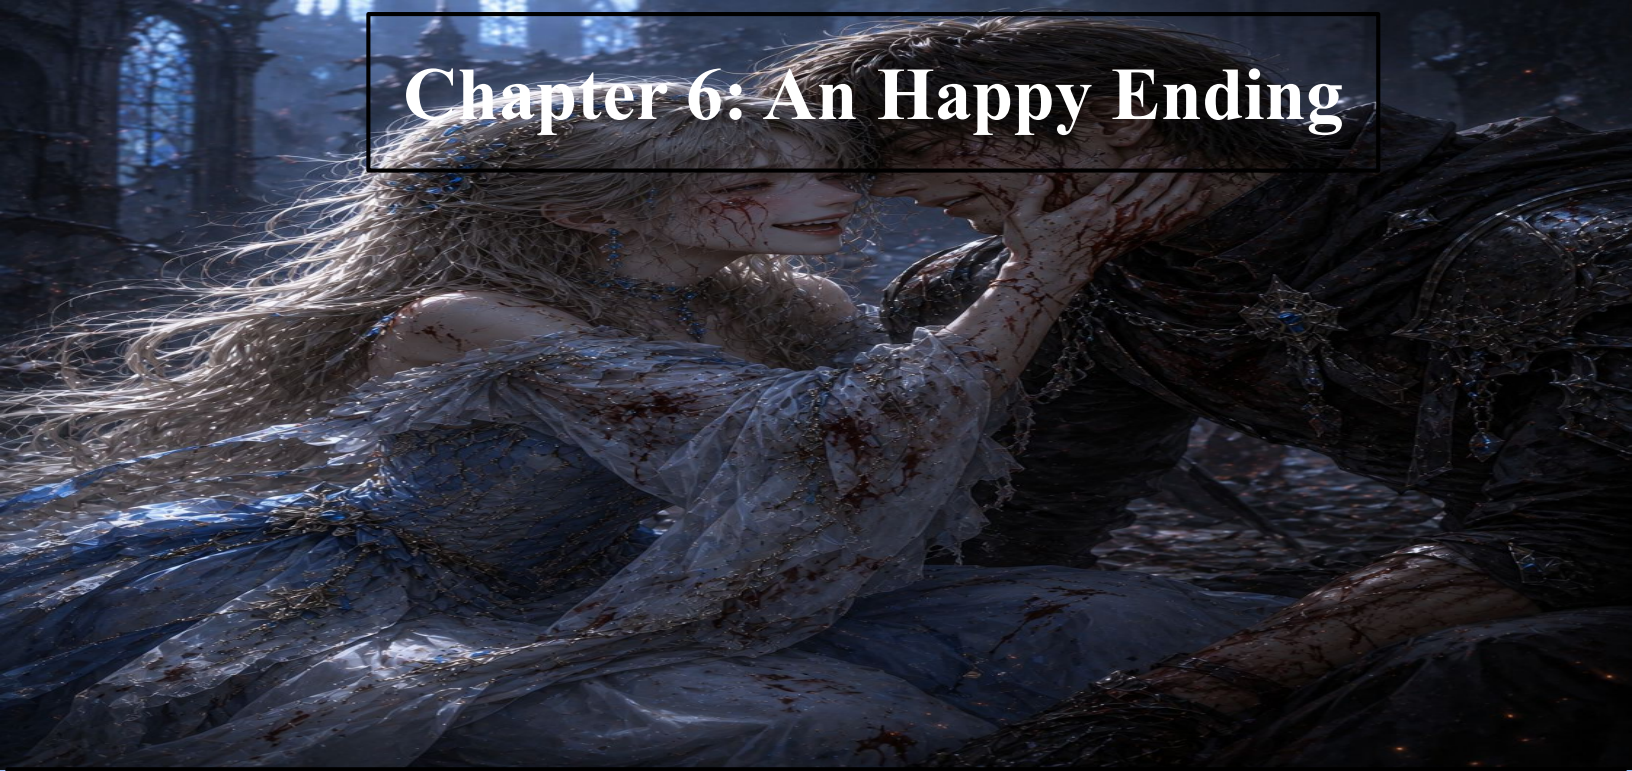

My kingdom got sucked up by the nightmares, and now everyone in my kingdom is seeing illusions and thinking that all of their loved ones who are safe are not safe anymore. Even I'm starting to think that I will never make my parents proud if I lose this fight. I am really scared because I really don't want the people in my kingdom to start thinking that no one is safe and that their loved ones are going to disappear. I walked outside of my castle and saw the dark purple cloud hovering above, and people running, screaming, and yelling that their family members are gone. My kingdom looked so horrible, I don't even know what to do anymore, and I feel like the nightmares have been killing all the happiness in my kingdom and making everyone scared and want to run away in fear. Even Frostflare has been getting illusions and remembering her parents getting killed, and the illusions telling her that she will never be good enough and that she will never make her parents proud. I can't even dream of a worse planet, and I can't think that my kingdom will be back to normal and happy again.

Chapter 5: The Fight

Will I ever be happy again? Will I ever make my parents proud? Will I ever defeat the nightmares? I can't even think anymore, my brain is getting scattered, and it's making me want to give up. I can't do this anymore. I can't do this without someone. I wish Kai were still here. I wish I had never banned him from my kingdom. I just wish that he would help me kill his dad and the nightmares, but I get it, like that's your only parent left, and you don't want to become king if he dies, but I really wish he could help me stop his dad from destroying everything. But I know that I can still do this. I need to defeat him, I need to prove to him that he's not strong and that he can't destroy anything anymore. So I decided to go to my blacksmith and have him ready up my sword. As he was doing that, I would gear up Frost Flare and me to get us ready for battle. I also had Frost Flare go and quickly find Kai because I needed him to help me defeat the nightmare, and if he said yes, we would be able to overcome the nightmares' strength and make my kingdom happy again, not in a constant state of fear because of them. Frost Flare came back, and to my surprise, Kai was on her back. He said yes! Now we can all get ready to go into battle. I ran over to my blacksmith and asked for my sword. The flame from my sword surprised Kai because he didn't hear that I got my fire powers. I also asked my blacksmith to make me a magical item for Kai as well, and Kai got a nightmare ghost sword that had purple lightning coming out of it. This should be perfect now we can defeat these nightmares and force his dad to stop. We ride Frost Flare over to the battleground. Once we got off her, Kai's dad stopped and looked at us in shock. "Well, I see my son is going to try to stop me, I see." No, we are going to stop you and your stupid nightmares. "Well, let's see if you can even hit me, little girl." I'm not a little girl; I am 19 years old, and my name is Vorri, and I will defeat you and your nightmares. "Let's see what you got, then Vorri." So we start to fight Frost Flare, spitting out her fire at him, me using my fire sword and fire powers, and Kai using his nightmare ghost sword, all of us attacking him at the same time. But then Kai gets him with a strong blast that hits him to the ground in pain and blood. Kai, I shouted. He was unconscious, but then, when I looked back at his dad, Frost Flare was also hurt, and now it was just me to defeat him. Then BAM, everything went black, and I saw both of my parents looking at me, telling me to get up. But I couldn't move; everything on my body was stiff, it felt like I was stuck to the ground. Mom, Dad, what should I do I can't get up. "You need to try, sweetie, that's the only way." But mom I can't get up I can't feel anything. "Vorri, you need to get up and fight. You need to defeat him, you need to protect the kingdom." Then something clicked, I don't know why and I can't explain it but I woke up and I felt like I was flying and I looked around, and I saw Kai's dad and I looked at him with this fighter look, and I took my sword and I used all of my strength and all of my power and I slashed him across the chest and I also used the slash and cut the nightmare clouds in half and destroyed the nightmares.

Chapter 6: An Happy Ending

Soon, Kai woke up, and I ran over and hugged him tight. I'm really sorry, Kai. I had to do it. I'm really sorry. Kai looked up and looked over and saw his dad bleeding all over the battleground. "Dad," Kai said, "I'm really sorry. I didn't want to, but I had to. Then Kai started to tear up, and so I started to hug him tighter. I let go to look at him to make sure and see if he was okay. But he looked at me and started to cry into my shoulder, and started to hug me tight. I started to cry as well because I didn't like to see him cry, and I knew how he was feeling because I had felt these emotions before, and I know they are not good emotions to feel. I asked him if he was okay, but he didnt even say anything and just kept hugging me. I told him that we needed to go to his island so he could fix what's going on there, so there would be no more nightmares or wars happening in the universe. He looked at me and nodded, so we both got up from the ground, and I bandaged him up, and then we loaded up the ship and took off to his island. When we got there, all of the people there looked sick and almost dead, and they also looked like they had been worked almost to death. I asked him what his dad was doing to them. "He would work them till they got it right because if they didnt get it right, he would have his little minions to beat them up. This island is very overworked and not treated right." Oh, that's not good what are you going to do about this? Do you know? "I was thinking of using my power to make them better, and then I was going to ask you if we could bring them to your island so they could have a better life than they do now." Why not? I would love to give them a place to stay and give them a job so they could be more happy i would love to help them, Kai. "Okay, good, because I feel bad about how badly they were overworked." I get that, let's get them better, then we will put them on the ship and bring them back to my island. "Okay," With a swing of his hand, he made a portal, and I thought that they wouldn't come out of the other side, but when all of the people started walking through, when they came through the other side, they looked healthy and more alive than dead. So, after all of them were through the portal, we started to load them onto the ship. When we got back to my island, we gave them homes and new jobs and easier jobs too. After we gave them their homes and jobs, they all thanked me so much, and I felt really happy, and I feel like I have made a differens to there live, and I also feel like I have finally made my parents proud.
